In the name of God, Amen; I Robert Bell of the County of Nicholas and State of Kentucky, being in a low state of health and weak in body, yet perfectly sound in judgment and memory, thanks be to God for all his mercies, but calling to mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men, once to die, I do make & ordain this my last will and Testament, that is to say, first of all I do recommend my soul to God who gave it, and my body to the Earth from whence it came, and to be buried in a decent manner, in hopes it shall be restored at the resurrection, and as touching such worldly effects as it has pleased God to bless me with in this life, I do give and bequeath as followeth, first of all I do allow all my lawful debts to be fully discharged, second to my wife Jane Bell I do allow and bequeath the one third of all my Real and personal estate, with the one third all bills, bonds, notes, goods and Chattels during her life, and also the several mares named Ben and Sadler, with all her own clothing and head and clothing to do with them as she sees cause during her life. Thirdly, I do allow all the rest of my estate Real and personal to be divided Equally between my four children, that is to say, Jane, Sally, Billy and Robert Bell. But let it be remembered that there is one year old colts and one cow to be taken out of my daughter Jane's part, and I do allow to David Brown my Anker Sacks and Breaches, and all the rest of my wearing apparel I do allow to my brother Samuel Bell and also if he comes here I do allow him six acres of cleared land to work rent free for one year, and also four barrels of Flour. And I also do allow the Legatee to sell the plantation if he see proper and the money to be put to Interest till the come of full age, but this is not to be done only with the advice and consent of the Guardians. And I do also make and appoint David Brown and James Andrey the sole Executors of this my last will and Testament, and I do utterly disallow Revoke and disannul all and every other former Testament wills or Legacies, and to Testify this and no other to be my last will Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this fifteenth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and three.

In the name of God, Amen: I William Foustale of Nicholas County and State of Kentucky, being in full mind and memory, do call to mind the mortality of man, and being about to leave the land of my nativity for some time, do make this my last will and Testament in manner and form following. First I do recommend my soul to God who gave it, and touching what worldly goods it has pleased God to bless me with in this life, I with and bequeath in manner and form following. First, it is my will and desire that all my just debts be punctually paid out of an Execution recovered against Robert Burns, and out of the return of my cargo, and what is left of said cargo I give and bequeath. Ten pounds out of the same unto William Wait to be put out upon interest to said William Wait comes of age. I give and bequeath unto sister Mary Endicott eldest daughter son all the remainder of the money for said cargo and property that shall be found to remain after my death. I have one hundred acres of land, what money shall pay off my just debts, and the aforesaid ten pounds to William Wait. The money to be put out on interest the property to be sold at one years credit for money, and all put out on interest, to sister Marys eldest son shall come of age, and in case there be no son, to the eldest daughter in manner before stated, in case no daughter to her son during her life time, and then the remainder to my other two sisters. And as touching my lands I give and bequeath an equal share of the whole unto my three sisters namely Hannah Ann and Mary, as it is their fathers inheritance, if my just debts can be settled without selling any part thereof and if not the remainder to be equally divided between my aforesaid sisters. I do appoint William Endicott and Thomas Corrahan my whole and sole executors of the aforesaid premises. Lastly it is my will and desire that all other wills or Testaments be void. In Testimony whereunto I have set my hand and affixed my seal the 26th of March 1803.
