This account of the sale of the estate of Joseph Smart deceased was returned into Court and ordered to be recorded. - att. Lewis H. Arnold Clerk.

In the Name of God Amen: I Thomas Foster of Nicholas County in the State of Kentucky being now possessed of my entire mental faculties, thanks be to God, but not knowing how soon it please him to call me me from this Transitory World, & is being desirous of having all my Earthly Concerns accommodated and to leave no misunderstanding to be settled after my decease, but that every thing should be clearly and perfectly understood, I have thought expedient to make this my last will and Testament, hereby annulling all wills and Testaments heretofore made by me - In the first place I bequeath unto God a soul he was pleased to endow me with, hoping that in his great goodness he will have Commiseration thereupon, and as to my Temporal affairs I direct that all debts I am conscious owe to any person may be justly paid. What property I possess of every species real personal or mixed in this world I dispose as follows. I give unto my two Daughters Susanas (Hester and Mary Monroes) twenty shillings Kentucky currency each. The rest of my property I will that my wife Rhoda (or Rody) Foster alias Howards shall have as she is the best intitled to it from her own conduct (circumstances, attention to me in all my infirmities, her management, industry, fidelity affection, In short under her what property I have she has been the means of acquiring and keeping together, and under the present disorder I labor under she has been my nurse, my consolation and my friend, as she is the best deserving of Enjoying what she has so faithfully and justly spent in acquiring. I appoint Christian Summit and George

Summit

Summit of Nicholas County my Executors. Given under my hand and seal this thirtieth day of October in this year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and Eight.
