

I John Chadwick, being of sound mind and memory, but of delicate health, do make and publish this my last Will & Testament. And first it is my Will and desire that all my just debts be paid, after which I will dispose of my property in the manner following, viz.

First I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Ann Chadwick all the personal property that may be in my possession at the time of my death, to her and her heirs forever; also the amount of a legacy to which I am entitled by the last Will and Testament of my good Father, Jeremiah Thompson except five dollars, which I will and bequeath to my Mother Hannah Chadwick, to her and her heirs forever. And whereas an unfortunate has taken place between my father Israel Chadwick and my Mother, in consequence of which she has been compelled to leave home and seek her help upon Society, without any means of support, except her own labor. Therefore, I will and bequeath to her my said Mother four hundred acres of land (or as much thereof as may remain after satisfying a debt due from me to William Allgood. by note, this has a mortgage upon said land for the payment of said note, it being the tract of land upon which my father now resides) during her natural life, and at her death to be equally divided between my two younger brothers, Israel and Abner T. Chadwick, their heirs and assigns forever. The aforesaid land to be subject to the control and management of John Chapman, during the life of my Mother, to be managed in such a way as may be most conducive to her interest.

I hereby nominate and appoint said John Chapman, Executor of this my last Will and Testament. Witness my hand and seal this second day of February 1834.
