The said Adm^r presents to us two promissory notes executed to him by the Decedent in March 1833, amounting to $84.37 1/2 each, besides the interest thereon, which will more than cover the balance due the estate; and we report therefore, that when these notes are set off against the said balance, there will be due to the estate the sum of $18.40. We further report that Elizabeth Bell, widow (as appears from Voucher No. 5. herewith returned) claims and got from said Adm^r, personal property to the amount of $148.20 which she claims as the widow of the Decedent; and which we find to consist of such articles, to which she was entitled, by virtue of such right.
 This amount is not included in the sales bill, all of which we respectfully submit to the Court.

Vincennes above settlement the said Adm^r has recovered on judgments against James M. Hatfield for $25. & $2.50, attorney fees in a suit brought for the recovery of the value of a negro; which amount we report against said Adm^r being the sum of $27.50, and allow him for counsel employed in said suit the sum of $10.00, leaving a balance of $17.50
