We the name of God Amen! I Major Selby of the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Shutesbury, being of sound mind and memory, but recalling the mortality of my body do make and ordain this to be my last will and Testament, in manner and form following to-wit: Item I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Peggy Selby, all the property of every description whatsoever that I may own at my death, for her to dispose of, to give will to whosoever she may think proper, at or before her death except two dollars. Item I give to my son Henry Selby one dollar besides what I have given him heretofore. Item I give to my daughter Polly Anterbus formerly, Polly Selby one dollar besides what I had given to her before. I now resign my soul to God who gave it to me and lastly I nominate Charles Parker to be my Executor of this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made in testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 4th day of January 1833.
