Hon Grigsby Will

He was with Hon Grigsby in his last illness who departed this life on the 31st day of August 1818. Some few days before his departure we were also present when the said Grigsby called on William Chapman and requested him to take his family and that his children and take the whole of his property and sell it or do just as he pleased with it - We heard of him making no other disposition of his family or property but the one above mentioned Some time after the above Request was made for W. Chapman to take his family and property C. Grigsby was asked whether it was yet his will and wish that the said Chapman should take his family and property and he answered it was
