

The last will and Testament of Philip Fulkerson son of Chickasaw and State of Kentucky Being well aware of the frailty of Human Nature and knowing that it is appointed once for man to die and yet being in my right mind do hereby will and Bequeath my real and personal Estate in the following manner that is to say in the first place I will that all my Just Debts should be paid. Secondly I will to my beloved wife Elizabeth Fulkerson the tract of land on which I now live with all and singular the appertinances until my son Jacob Fulkerson shall arrive at the age of Twenty one years at which time I will the whole of the aforesaid plantation to my son Jacob Fulkerson wearing at the same time to my wife Elizabeth her right of Dower including the dwelling house and part of the Orchard, should she be alive at that time and I further will that my wife Elizabeth have all the household and Kitchen furniture except such things as may hereafter be otherwise disposed of also two horses sorrel and black and two mares (Iael a Bay and a black, five Cows and two Heifers all my farming utensils and all my hogs except the surplus pork that may be merchantable this ensuing fall and at my wife Elizabeth's death I will all that part of my personal estate which I have bequeathed to her shall be disposed of by my Executors hereafter to be appointed)

Therolly I will and bequeath to my son Adam Fulkerson son being two and half acres of land where he now lives agreeably to a survey made by Joshua Crow. Fifthly I will and bequeath to my son Philip Fulkerson one hundred acres of land to adjoin Fulkers Fulkersons tract and to run parallel the full length of said Fulkers line. Sixthly I will and bequeath to my son Fulkard Fulkerson one hundred acres out of a survey made by the aforesaid Crow to adjoin his brother Philip. Seventhly I will and bequeath to my son John Fulkerson all the balance of the five Hundred acre tract decided to me by Daniel L Morrison & except Eighty six acres lying on the west of Fulkers one hundred acre survey and forty acres at the South East Corner and I will that Samuel Robertson have twenty nine acres of the Eighty six acres as aforesaid together with seventy one acres agreeably to a survey laid off by J. Crow including the plantation on which he now lives. Seventhly I will to Reed McGrew fifty acres of Land whereon he now lives and agreeably to a survey made by J. Crow. Eighthly I will and bequeath to the heirs of my Brother Jacob Fulkerson fifty acres of Land agreeably to a survey made by J. Crow Ninthly I will and Bequeath to my Brother John Fulkerson fifty acres to be laid in a square at the South East Corner of the tract all of the aforesaid several tracts and parcels of Land are contained in a Qad made by Daniel L Morrison & for five hundred acres lying on the waters of Green River I further will that my son Adam have twenty eight acres of the Eighty six and to be laid adjoining Sam. Robertsons twenty nine acres. tenthly I will and bequeath to my Daughter Rachel Fulkerson one feather Bed and bed stead and furniture one cow and calf one square table made of cherry plank and Linnen wheel six plates one pot one Dutch oven and one set knives and forks. Eleventhly I will and bequeath to my Daughter Betsey one feather Bed and bed stead and furniture one cow and calf one linning wheel six plates one pot one Dutch oven and one set knives and forks. Twelfthly I will and bequeath to my Daughter Primely Fulkerson one feather Bed and bed stead and furniture one cow and calf one linning wheel six plates one pot one Dutch oven and one set of knives and forks. And I further will and bequeath to my son John Fulkerson one young horse two years old last spring or a younger horse three years old last spring which ever the said John may choose. I further will that all my lands on the north west side of the Ohio River held by deed or otherwise and all my land in the State of Kentucky (part) a tract on the south side of the Teling fork about twenty eight acres part of the tract conveyed by D. L. Morrison on the waters of Green River and adjoining Fulkerson's Fulkersons and hundred acres and the west, to be sold together with any other parts of my personal estate not otherwise disposed of either at private or publick sale on a credit as my Executor hereafter to be appointed may think proper and that the proceeds thereof be equally divided between all my Children. However it is to be understood that in case the articles willed & bequeathed to my Daughters Rachel Betsey Primely should not be on hand when they may want them they are to be procured out of any sales of my Estate before a London thing lastly nominate and appoint my friends George Smith William Rogers and my son Fulkard Fulkerson Executors of this my last Will and Testament to carry the same into Effect agreeably to the full intent and meaning thereof. In Testimony hereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 21st Day of June 1813

138

139

Signed in presents of Samuel Noel
George Coleman

Philip Fulkerson (seal)

Ohio County Oct. August County Court 1813

The last will and Testament of Philip Fulkerson deceased was exhibited in open Court and proved by the oaths of Samuel Noel and George Coleman ^{two} subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded whereupon George Smith, William Rogers and Fulkard Fulkerson, Executors named in said will having taken the oath required by law and with John Barnes their Security Entered into bond in the penalty of $2000 Conditioned as the Court directs a Certificate of the probate thereof is granted them in due form of law.

Ch. H. Anderson