Among of the last will of Jonathan Haynes I signed and sealed this 25th day of January 1834 Being of sound mind but low in health therefore I wish to leave some instructions relative to my affairs in this last should I be called of at this time

First I wish all my property to be vested in the hands of my son William for the maintenance of my wife & the raising my infant children But should my wife returns again to her right mind I wish her to know the content of the affairs of the family

Secondly if William James & Thomas continue to live together and pay for the land I wish them to divide it between them William to have the upper and James & Thomas the lower the land I now live on But should either of them leave home & not assist in paying for the same they are not to have any part thereof

Thirdly I wish William to make such disposition of my debt as he can either in money or property as he can arrange with my creditor and I wish him to hold all my property as well for the payment of my debt as the maintenance of my family Fourthly I wish my daughter Elizabeth to have a good Bed & Chair & should the other two girls Lure and Sally live to become women I want them to have the same as Elizabeth as the boys have the land they should have their share paid also Fifthly should there be anything worthy of dividing after the children all come of age I wish an equal division
