Witness my hand this 20th day of August 1838

Among of the last will of Jonathan Haynes I signed and sealed this 30th day of May 1838 Being of sound mind but low in health therefore I wish to leave some instructions relative to my affairs in this will that should I be called of at this time

First I wish all my property to be vested in the hands of my son William for the maintenance of my wife & the rearing my infant children But should my wife return again to her right mind I wish her to know the content of the affairs of the family

Secondly if William James & Thomas continue to live together and pay for the land I wish them to divide it between them William to have the upper end James the lower end & Thomas the farm I now live on But should either of them leave home & not assist in paying for the same they are not to have any part thereof

Thirdly I wish William to make such disposition of my debt as he can either in money or property as he can arrange with my creditor as I wish him to hold all my property as well for the payment of my debt as the maintenance of my family Fourthly I wish my daughter Elizabeth to have a good Bed & Chamber should the other two Girls Jane and Sally here to be come women I want them to have the same as Elizabeth as the boys have the land they should have their share paid also

Fifthly should there be anything worthy of dividing after the children all come of age I wish an equal division of the property to be made between the children that are now living at home after the girls each shall receive their share to & his first

Sixthly I wish my Daughter Nancy to have a care as soon as they can conveniently spare one from the family signed and sealed this day and date above written in the presence of J. S. Taylor
