I Now bid Benne of this County Hereby being, male in Body but sound mind and memory and knowing the uncertainty of life and certainty of Death think it proper to make the following disposition of my property as my last will and Testament To wit 1st my will and desire is that my Executors herein after named for the purpose of discharging my just debts all any and all if necessary of my personal or real estate, that they have the right and power to do it which they will dispose of first, either the real or personal, or any part of either, and when they see the real estate that they have power to make a proper conveyance by deed thereof and in case any one of said Executors should act that he have the same power to act severally as is hereby conferred jointly - and I will and desire that my Executors have power to receive the legal title of all lands which I have purchased and not yet conveyed to me by deed that they may rightfully and legally dispose of them for the purpose aforesaid - 2nd I give and bequeath to my affectionate wife Elizabeth Benne all and every thing both personal and real estate that may be left after paying my debts and expences of settling the same to use or dispose of as she may think proper for the support of herself and our children

I hereby nominate and appoint Isaac Norton and Ellis Dyer my Executors of this my last will and Testament and publish the same. In witness whereof, I hereto set my my hand and seal the 16th day of February 1833
