

210

Kentucky. This County Court Set
June 6th 1859.

This last Will and Testament of David A. Williams Decd was this day produced in open Court and duly proven by the oath of J. P.
Pamark and Richard Herring Subscribing witnesses. Thence as proceeded by law: and the same being examined and approved of by the Court is ordered to be Recorded - which is done -

Attest
J. P. Mosley, Clerk
This County Court

211

I Do hereby know that Eliza Foster of of this County Kentucky do hereby make and declare this my last Will and Testament, hereby declaring this as my last and only Will for the purpose of disposing of all the property that was and will deemed to me from the Estate of my father Abraham Dinsley and for that purpose I hereby will and bequeath to my two children named John B. and Mary J. Foster all the slaves, money or other property that by or may hereafter deemed to me from the said Estate of my deceased father Abraham Dinsley, for my two said children to have and hold equally, and at the death of either of them, the survivor is to have the amount and in the event of the death of both of my two named children before they arrive at full age all of said property it is my will that it should go back to my brother and sister in equal shares to each - I hereby appoint Robert C. Pamell sole Executor to this my said Will to take charge of all the said property that I and or would be entitled to and employ or use so much thereof as he may deem necessary for the maintaining and educating my two said children or the survivor as he may deem necessary or useful - In witness whereof

I have hitherto affixed my seal and subscribed my name on this Eleventh day of June A.D. 1855 In presence of Nehemiah Ward Eliza Foster (circled)
George M. Gindley

State of Kentucky
Ohio County Court Set

July Term 1855
On last Will & Testament of Eliza Foster Decd. was an order from of the Court given by the Judge of the said Court and Jes. M. Gindley subscribing therein as the law prescribes - being examined and approved of by the Court is ordered to be Recorded - which is done accordingly Witness my name as Clerk of said Court - This July 4th 1855.

R. J. Moseley
Ohio County Clerk

Know all men by these presents that I George Row Son of Ohio County and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and disposing memory do hereby make declare and publish this as my last Will and Testament, hereby declaring all Wills hitherto by me made fully revoked and to be held for naught. It is my Will wish and desire that my Executor hereinafter named do without delay pay all my just debts 1st I hereby will and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary Row the farm that is the entire tract of land I now live on in Ohio County together with all the appurtenances belonging thereto also all the farming utensils, household and kitchen furniture and also 1 Dorset mare, 4 of my best cattle & all of my hogs, also the sum of One hundred Dollars in money to be paid over to her by my said after named Executor for her own use and benefit for and during her natural life, and at her death I desire and direct my Executor or Survivors to convey said land and property to my son Mary Row which is in accordance with an agreement of the same date - I further will & direct that my Executor dispose of all the property I may be possessed of at my death except what