

Now all men By these Presents That I Elizabeth Wallace wife of Samuel Wallace the County of Ohio and State of Kentucky being in a last State of health and my lips and ears of and being in my rational senses do make this my last will and testimony to be my husband Samuel Wallace The undivided and half of a tract or parcel of land lying & being in Spencer County & State of Indiana which is now by my late John Pendergast and containing and bounded and so more being thud to acres, Survey is laid in front for parcel of the said Elizabeth Wallace to make this my last will. And Testimony to which I have set my hand and affixed my seal this 19th day of April Elizabeth Wallace To Acting Franklin Wallace To Benjamin Wucher To

This County Court set January Term 1852
 The last will and testament of Elizabeth Wallace returned into Court and proved by the oaths of Franklin Wallace and Benjamin Wucher subscribing witnesses. Records and Orders to be recorded Attest the Clerk of the Court
 Wm. J. Henderson Clk

I Henry Addington of Ohio County and State of Kentucky being in body but of a sound mind and willing to make a disposition of all my goods and effects I therefore desire first that all my just debts be paid and second I will and bequeath unto my son Virgil Porter

Addington and hundred acres of land lying and being in Ohio County and State of Kentucky and included in the lot of land which I bought of Joseph Work the number of acres is and lot being and hundred and sixty nine acres and making said sixty nine acres to George Board in the South Side of said lot and extending across the lot of said land and running from east to west so as to include sixty nine acres and leaving one hundred acres to the above named Virgil Porter Addington to have and to hold forever and kindly I also desire that the above named Virgil Porter Addington have and has had and clothing for the same and having obtained the above named land and bed and clothing first I then devise and equal division of all my goods and effects amongst all my children and that the said division be made between all my children peaceably and peacefully without any administration or otherwise giving unto the above named Virgil Porter Addington and equal portion the same above the above named and hundred acres of land and the above named bed and clothing and to it well remembered that this my last will and testament shall revoke all former wills and testaments whatsoever And Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 19th day of June in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty Henry Addington and Signed sealed and delivered in presence of James Wolcott
 Nathaniel Davis

And I do appoint Joshua B. Addington executor to this my last will and testament.

This County Court for November Term 1851
The last will and testament of Henry Addington was produced, in Court and read by the oath of James Hollett and Joseph Davis subscribing witnesses thereof and ordered to be recorded, and thereupon Joshua B.
Addington the executor thereof named came into Court and ordered into and acknowledged and to the Court of Kentucky in the form of Oath with Andrew Miller and Meriah Crawford his security at Ed. Henderson etc.
By J. Henderson etc.

In the Name of God Amen I Philip Holton being of Sound mind and disposing memory but weak in body and knowing that it is appointed unto all men once to die do make this my last will and testament hereby setting all others aside 1st It is my will that the tract of land now occupied & now reside and estimated to contain four hundred acres be equally divided between my two sons James Franklin and Philip It to be equally divided between them (residing to quantity and quality and I leave off as to be owned to James Franklin his improvement and to Philip the house I now live in - It is my desire however that my wife Eliza should have the use of the mansion house and as much of the farm as she may think proper to have not exceeding one third of the whole tract during her Natural life and should any difficulty arise between my said sons or between them or either of them and their Mother as to the division or occupation of said land each and concerned is to choose a disinterested person and those persons so selected is to decide the whole matter (they choosing an umpire if necessary) which decision shall be final between them

2^d It is also my will that my wife Eliza retain the full property following, Slaves in her possession and under her control during her Natural life I wit, Catherine Muldrow Said and Henry - and that she retain in like manner all my personal property which may not be necessary to be sold for the payment of my debts

3^d It is also my will and desire that my son Philip should have the said Catherine at the death of his Mother together with her increase It is also my will that Slaves not devised to my wife and to be kept and held out by my executors until the balance of my children now living are aged or a division of them amongst themselves either by buying or selling each their interest or by letting them remain in the hands of the Executors and their heirs being so divided until the death of my wife when it is my desire that the Slaves devoted to her possession (with the exception of Catherine) should to Philip be as to be among my said children as above to wit Charles M. Astory R. Farnsworth James P. and Elijah Shale and Share alike 4th It is also my will and desire that all the personal property which I