In the Name of God Amen I Thomas Parsons of Anne Arundel County do make my last will and Testament as follows To wit First and principally I recommend my soul into the hands of my Creator in certain hope of the resurrection of my body and in humble and awful expectation of pardon and forgiveness of my sins and offences which I humbly and sincerely beseech God to grant me in the Name of Jesus Christ the Messiah and Saviour Secondly I Commit my body to the earth which I request to be decently and privately interred my near relations and a few friends only being invited to attend my funeral at which I desire to be read the funeral service of the Protestant Episcopal Church of which I am a member and it is my desire that no mourning be worn by dear children other than black ribbon handkerchiefs and gloves

Thirdly as it pleased God heretofore to bestow on me a liberal fortune which I have lately lost by my misfortune and ill judgment confirmed debt as the small remnant that can be saved out of the wreck of my fortune cannot be placed in the hand of any person now truly prudent and frugal than my beloved wife and who as she desires her affection among her children will I have no doubt distribute equally among them anything that can be saved I do God advise and bequeath unto my dear wife and her heirs executors and administrators forever After payment and satisfaction of all my just debts all my estate real personal and mixed of every kind or nature whatsoever and wheresoever and and the equity of redemption of all mortgages made by me of lands or places or other property to any of my Creditors and every kind right title or claim that I have in law or equity in any property debts or any other thing in that world, I do hereby
