

In the name of God, amen: I, Joel H. Eaves of the County of Ohio and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, for which I thank Almighty God, and calling to mind the uncertainty of human life, and desirous to dispose of all such estate as has pleased God to bestow upon me, I give and bequeath the same in manner following that is to say, First I give and bequeath to my dear wife Rebecca J. Eaves all my property both real and personal so long as she remains my widow or during her natural life; provided, nevertheless that in case she marries at her death, I will and bequeath the same to my daughter Edmonia Eaves.
Secondly I will and bequeath all the money that I have on hand and also due me by promissory notes, as follows: First I will to my Grandson Wm. Eaves ten dollars, Secondly, I will to my daughter Scintia J. Eaves Ten dollars, Third I will to my son John B. Eaves Ten dollars, Fourth I will to my son Jas. H. Eaves Ten dollars, Fifth I will to my daughter Isabell Eaves Ten dollars Sixth I will that I should be more than the above named fifty dollars and enough to give me a decent burial. The balance to go to my wife Rebecca and her daughter Edmonia Eaves. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal the Twenty-first day of September one Thousand eight hundred and eighty two.

May 5th 1879. Being of sound mind, I have concluded it would be best to make some provision for my family by will, that I wish carried out after my death. In the first place I will state what I have given to my three oldest children commencing with the oldest. I have given to my son John C. Owen a horse and saddle also three hundred and forty five dollars for which I hold his note, also twenty dollars interest of a bed. I also have note for two hundred dollars money loaned him. I have given to my daughter Bettie Leharblis a horse and saddle, four hundred and fifty dollars in land conveyed to her by deed, also seventy one dollars in money for which I hold her notes, also one bed and covering, also a young cow. I have given to my son James L. Owen a horse and saddle, also two hundred and forty five dollars in money.
