In the name of God amen, I Charles Hamilton, being in full health and knowing that life is uncertain, and death certain, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and ordain, this my last will and testament, revoking all others heretofore made by me.

First I wish all my honest debts paid, and especially those due to my sister in law, for which she holds my notes, and my funeral expenses. The remainder of all my real and personal property, goods and chattels, rights and effects, is for the benefit of my loving wife and children, my said wife to have her third or a child's part, at her death, the land is all to be my wife until my youngest child becomes of lawful age, to enable her to raise them, (the children), at which time an equal distribution to each of my children, by sale or otherwise as may seem best for them, my wife being at her discretion one third or a child's part. In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this 21st day of February 1870.

I Blackstone Taylor of Ohio County, Ky do make this my last will and testament.

1st I wish all my just debts after my death, to be punctually and speedily paid.

2^d I will to my wife, the farm I now live on, containing about 300 acres and after her death to my son Samuel P. Taylor. I also will to my wife all my house and kitchen furniture, to be disposed of as she may see proper, and also give to her all my interest being one half of all cattle, hogs and sheep now on the farm, the other half belongs to my son Samuel P. and after her death, I wish all her interest in said stock and proceeds, that may arise from the cultivation of the farm, I wish to be equally divided, between my four living daughters. I desire that the farm, I will to my wife and Samuel P. Taylor, should be cultivated by them jointly during her life, and that she to hire one hand to assist her, and in the event, that they cannot agree, as to the proper hand she is to furnish, I desire the same to be settled by my executors hereafter named.

In consideration of the provisions, heretofore made for my son Samuel P. Taylor, I enjoin on him to see that his mother, is well provided for, and if he fails, he is then and in that event, to be made equal with my other sons. I wish my executors, to sell all of the property, except the farm heretofore willed to my wife, that she may wish sold or may not have use for, and the proceeds applied to the payment of my debts.

I will and bequeath to my daughter Sue Ann Taylor three hundred dollars.

I will and bequeath to Cordelia Garrison two hundred dollars.

I will and bequeath to Bettie H. Stevens two hundred dollars.

I will and bequeath to Horace Taylor two hundred dollars.

I then desire after the above is completed with, all the balance of my estate, to be equally divided between my four daughters Sue Ann Taylor, Bettie H. Stevens, Cordelia Garrison, and Horace Stahl.

The note I hold on John M. Leach for $200- issued to me about the year 1857 or 8, I wish to be collected by my executors, and paid to my four grand sons, William P. Joseph S. Marcus S. and John H. Spack, when they become 21 years of age, equally divided.

I hereby appoint John P. Taylor and Elijah Taylor, my executors and empower them, to sell and convey the tract of land, I now own known as the Free Massey land, and also empower them to dispose of my rail road stock, if they may deem best.

If there should be any debts, antedated by my wife and Samuel P. before her death, I direct the same to be paid out of the proceeds of the farm willed to them, if there should not be sufficient profits arising from the same, to pay said debts, then I direct enough of the said farm be sold to pay them.

I have heretofore decided to my sons John P. Taylor and William P. Taylor.

Taylor land and have also assisted John Isaacs, which I think make them equal with the balance of my children
