

they each one of them shall have the house in which he now lives and not exceeding three acres of land each near & surrounding said houses.

I will to my daughter Maggie Russell due to black man three years old now.

I will to my wife the interest & dividends on ten shares of stock in the Louisville Gas Co during her life time, but in case she may die before my daughter & she, my daughter Maggie, shall be unmarried.

I will that she said Maggie shall have the interest on said 10 shares of Gas stock, so long as she shall remain single & I hereby appoint my son James the agent for my said daughter Maggie for the purpose of drawing the interest on said Gas stock for Maggie & will that said Maggie's interest in the matter be protected but in case Maggie should marry, I will that the said 10 shares of Gas stock shall be equally divided between William M. Russell, Walter Russell & Maggie Russell, but before any division of estate is made I will that my executor shall pay all my just debts.

I hereby appoint my son John James Russell my Executor without bond. I will in case that said James & Alexander Russell shall leave the farm or fail to comply with said contract or understanding before the death of my wife then shall be an equal division of my real & personal estate not otherwise herein provided for, between my heirs.

Witness my hand and seal this the 20th day of April 1895

David Russell

E. B. Williams
James Cummins
L. Reid

Ohio County Court
May term 1895

The foregoing last Will & Testament of David Russell was this day produced in open Court and proven on the oaths of E. B. Williams & James Cummins two of the attesting witnesses there to, to be the last Will & Testament aforesaid and ordered to record which is now done accordingly.

D.M. Hocker Clerk

I, David P. Snedden of Ohio County, State of Kentucky, do make and publish this my last will & Testament making void all former wills by me at any time made. Being of sound mind & memory. I will and bequeath all my property real & personal to my wife ~~Annie~~ ^{Annie} Snedden. I also grant her the power to sell the same if she deems it necessary for the support of herself & my children. I do hereby make and ordain my wife (Annie) Snedden executor of this my last will & Testament to have power to sell the real & personal property as above stated & make deeds for same and also to collect and all claims that may be or that may hereafter be due my estate, and to use or as above mentioned. I also direct that my wife shall be the guardian of my children that are minors at the time of my death. I witness whereof I, David P. Snedden, this later have this day the 22nd day of June 1895 set my hand & seal.

David P. Snedden

Signed & sealed and delivered in our presence who have subscribed in the presence of each other.

A. J. Poiry
J. R. Brown

Ohio County Court
August term 1895

The foregoing last Will & Testament of David P. Snedden (deceased Aug 5, 1895) produced in open Court and proven on the oaths of A. J. Poiry & J. R. Brown two of the attesting witnesses there to, to be the last Will & Testament aforesaid and ordered to record which is now done accordingly.
D.M. Hocker Clerk.