

I Edmon Southard, being of sound mind make this my last will & testament and hereby revoking all other wills made by me.

In consideration of my son J. L. Southard living with & supporting myself & wife, Martha and supporting and caring for my three daughters, Fannie, Lueline, Charlotte Ann, and Naomi Eliza so long as they remain single, I hereby will to said J. L. Southard my my entire farm of about 150 acres same upon which I now reside, except the mineral coal under said tract of land, which I will to all my children, to share equally in said coal and mineral.

But it is my desire & will that the my said son J. L. Southard shall have the right to designate the place where the entrance shall be made on said land for the purpose of mining and taking out said coal and mineral, but no coal to be mined on or under said land within fifty yards of the dwelling, barns, stables and out houses.

I will to each of my three daughters above named one cow and two sheep to each of them, to make them equal with my other daughters.

I will and bequeath to my son J. L. Southard all the residue of my cattle ^{hogs & sheep}

I will and bequeath all my household and kitchen furniture to my five daughters to be equally divided among them.

I will to my son James E. Southard two acres of land to be taken out of the corner of my land next to his house.

I will to my son John the sum of fifteen dollars in money.

It is my will and desire that my sons-in-law shall have nothing to say or do about any part of my estate.

It is my will and desire that my son shall not in the event that he should marry bring his wife to live in the house occupied by me during the life of myself or wife, but he has the privilege of building a house close if he wants to do so.

This County Court 3 set
July Term 1894

The foregoing last will and testament of Edmond Southard deceased, was produced in open Court, and being properly proven by the oaths of Richard Suedden and A. P. Robinson, two of the attesting witnesses thereto, was ordered to be recorded, which is now done.

Attest: Rowan Holbrook, C. C.
By L. M. Rinder, D. C.

Know all men by these presents, that I Mary E. Crowe, widow and devisee of Wesley Crowe, deceased, of Ohio County, Kentucky, do hereby revoke all the provisions of the last will and testament of the said Wesley Crowe, deceased, or so far as the same may in any way effect me, and I hereby assert the claim, homestead and dower right in and to my distributable interest in and to his said estate as the laws of Kentucky would insure to me as his widow, had the said Wesley Crowe died intestate.

Given under my hand, this the 18th day of July 1894.

Mary E. Crowe
State of Kentucky 3
County of Ohio 3 L. Rowan Holbrook,
