

Indented

I William Lloyd Rogers of the County of Ohio and State of Kentucky do make and publish this as my last will and Testament First I direct that my funeral expenses and all my debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any moneys that I may die possessed of or may first come into the hands of my Executors Secondly I give and bequeath to my wife the Tract of land on which I now live containing Two Hundred acres together with all the stock and all other species of property belonging to me at my decease to have use and enjoy the same so long as she may remain as my widow. In the event my wife Magdaline should again marry then it is my will that the property held by her through this my will then in each case I direct that the property or so much as she may be in possession of be equally divided between her and my Children Generally Except Sarah E. Jamagin to whom I have heretofore given Five Hundred and forty Dollars which debt is to be charged her in the division I also gave to John B. Rogers my son to the value of One Hundred Dollars which I direct to be charged to him in the division as directed above. Having overlooked One Hundred Dollars in my estimate of the amount directed to be charged against my Daughter Sarah E. Jamagin that the same be added to the sum of Five Hundred and forty Dollars and charged her in the division also one Horse and one Cow value One Hundred Dollars to be charged to Sarah E. Jamagin in the division as heretofore directed. Lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint my wife Magdaline Rogers and John B. Rogers my Executors and it is my will that they be not required to give any security for the performance of their duties

In witness whereof I do to this my will let my hand seal this the 19th day of February 1897

Wm L Rogers

In the name of God Amen!

I, Henry Thompson being of sound mind and disposing memory, full weak and frail of body and wishing to be prepared for death do make, ordain, publish and declare this to be my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all others heretofore made by me, I desire that all my just debts be paid. I will and bequeath to my beloved son George R. Thompson the farm and appurtenances on which I now reside but charge said farm which contains about 150 acres with the support of my beloved wife Mary L. Thompson during her life to so long as she shall survive my widow, and also direct that my two unmarried daughters Geraldine and Mary are to be furnished a home and maintained upon said farm so long as they remain unmarried. I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary L. Thompson all the household furniture and goods which she brought home with her after our marriage, consisting of two beds and bedding, bureau &c. In the event that my wife Mary and George or either of them should become dissatisfied with living together I direct and desire that my wife shall have one third of the home farm for and during the period of her natural life, and at least one room of the residence, but at her death such third is to go to my son George and his heirs, together with the rest of the home farm in fee simple title.

I will and bequeath to my beloved daughter Mary Ann Felix the tract of about 80 acres of land which I bought at Commissioners sale lying on Lewis Creek near Briggs Mill and desire the Master of the Ohio Circuit Court to make the deed to said land to my said daughter, I having only an equitable title to the same having bought it at a court sale in the case of J. A. Barclay vs R. P. Briggs.
