I, John H. T. Stevens, being old and infirm and conscious of that fact that according to the course of nature, that my time on earth must close soon, I make this my last will and testament as follows, to wit:

1st I give to my son Benj. J. Stevens thirty acres of land, beginning at the creek on the lower part of the farm, thence back toward the hill for quantity.

The consideration of the above gift is that if the said Ben J. Stevens settles on said thirty acres of land and lives on it it is to be his his life time and at his death it is to go to Daniel B. Stevens, son of the said Ben J. Stevens.

If the said Ben J. Stevens fails or refuses to settle on said land, it is to belong to the said Daniel B. Stevens, when he arrives at the age of twenty one years. I further give to Ben J. Stevens one of the wagons if there be more than one wagon on the farm, and one bed and furniture, one bed, and at his death the bed is to belong to his son Dan. B. Stevens, and I give Dan. B. Stevens my shot gun.

I give to Wm. H. Stevens the remainder of the old homestead, provided that he the said Wm. H. Stevens, cares for me and his mother during the remainder of our lives, and also give him a bed and furniture for same, and bureau and mowing machine.

I give to Mary E. Stevens, daughter of W. H. Stevens, her bed and furniture and all the bed clothing she has made for herself, and her jewelry and the new bureau, and her trunk and all the kitchen furniture.

Then I want the balance of the house furniture to be equally divided between Mary E. Stevens and Dan B. Stevens.

I give to Mary E. Stevens my bay mare which is now four years old and one yearling heifer, black and white colored, and I give the tract of land called and known as the Buck Mitchell land.
