

I, Emmett Early, being of sound mind and of disposing memory, do make this my last will and testament:-

First- I will that all my just debts and personal expenses be paid as soon as possible after my death.

Second- I will all of my estate real, personal or mixed so however located to my dearly beloved wife Maggie Early, whatever it may be it will be a slight to her of my gratitude to her for her loving care and wife's devotion.

Third- I hereby appoint my wife Maggie Early executrix of this my last will and testament, and it is my request and desire that she shall not be required to file any bond for the performance of her duty, or any list of my estate.
Pellville Ky, Sept 17th 1890.

Emmett Early,

The foregoing will of Emmett Early was this day signed and acknowledged in my presence, at the request of the testator, and we have duly witnessed the same at his request.

This 17 day of Sept. 1890, D. J. Morrison

James A. Miller

Ohio County Court
June 11th Term 1891.

The foregoing last will and testament of Emmett Early deceased was at this term of Court produced in Court and proven by the oaths of D. J. Morrison and the deposition of James A. Miller the attesting witnesses thereto, to be the last will and testament of said Early. Whereupon the said will with this certificate ordered to be duly recorded which is now done accordingly.
Given under my hand, this 11th day of June 1891.

Rowan Talbot Clerk

In the name of God Amen, I Amelia B. Austin widow of Thomas C. Austin deceased of Ohio County Ky being in sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this as my last will and testament- To my son Elmer B. Austin I give and bequeath all my personal property and all property of full value that I may own at my death- I make this will with full knowledge of the claims of my children upon me, I have this consideration, My said son has in a kind manner cared for me for a number of years past and this I do to compensate him to some extent for what he has expended for me in caring for and supporting me in my old age- Signed and acknowledged as my last will and testament, this 11th day of January A.D. 1888, Amelia B. Austin.

Witness: Harrison Austin

R. B. Carter

Ohio County Court
June 11th Term 1891.

I, Rowan Talbot Clerk of the Ohio County Court, do hereby certify that the foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Amelia B. Austin deceased, was at the June Term of the Ohio County Court, produced in open Court and was duly proved by the testimony of Harrison Austin and R. B. Carter to be the genuine last will and testament of Amelia B. Austin deceased and ordered to be duly recorded which is now done accordingly.
Given under my hand, this 11th day of June 1891.

Rowan Talbot Clerk