

I, Harrison Taylor of the County of Ohio and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory do hereby make and ordain this my last will and testament.

Item 1st It is my will and desire that all my just debts be paid by my Executor after my death, that my body be buried in a decent and suitable manner and that suitable grave or tombstone be erected over my grave.

Item 2nd I hereby authorize my Executor to convey any lands which I may have sold but not conveyed at the time of my death in accordance with the bond or bonds which I may have given or the contracts I may have made for such conveyance.

Item 3rd I give to my three sons Cornell, Pegman and George my gold watch to be held by one of the three and kept in the family letting them determine the ownership between the three either by lot or purchase as they may choose.

Item 4th In the division of all the real and residue of my estate both real and personal after my death it is my will that my son Cornell Taylor receive the sum of Five Hundred and Seventy five dollars with interest from the 1st day of January 1868. But if he has or ever shall collect the balance of a note for something over $800, executed to him as Admin of John M. Taylor Decd. by Page Bacon Esq. or some other writing of like import. If I have mistaken the names of the parties above, then he is to collect account for whatever amount he may have so collected to my Ex^r. The said $875 is intended to make him Cornell equal with the other heirs in an advancement I made to my children from the proceeds of my son Thomas M. Taylor's estate, including 1856. I collected of his individual funds and have never paid to him, and I then desire that the whole of my estate of every description be divided into six equal shares to be held share and share alike by my sons Cornell, Pegman and George and my two living daughters Barah Ann and Louisa Shanks, or their heirs respectively if any of the parents are dead at the time and it is my desire that the other sixth portion going to the children of my daughter Susan Herald be equally divided between her five children, provided that the four children she had by her first husband Jacob Borah consent to make their half brother Marion Summons an equal heir in the said Jacob Borah's estate, but should they not make the said Marion a full and equal heir with them, then it is my will that the said Marion Summons is to have the whole sixth of my estate to the entire exclusion of all his half brothers and sisters. Item 5th I give to my children the selection of their own mode of living dividing my estate between them =

Selves either by mutual agreement and division or by putting up my property and letting them that they cannot agree in the division of, I however wish my negro woman Jana to have the selection of her own home and if the selection cannot be made amicably to all parties this is to be valued by three disinterested persons and the person whom he or she may be whom she has selected to live with is to have her for one hundred dollars less than her real cash value as ascertained by her said appraisers. In making said division it is my express wish that none of my children or grand children be charged with any advancements heretofore made or which I shall hereafter make I hereby reserving to myself the right to make aid any one of them I may think proper up to the time of my death without their having to account for the same afterwards nor are they or either of them to be charged with the special legacies of this will and should I die holding any funds which I may hereafter acquire they are to go into into the general distribution of my estate.

Item 6th It is my will and desire that the entire portions of my estate which shall fall to my two daughters Louisa and Barah Ann or their real or personal be held in trust by my said Executor for their sole use and benefit entirely free from the control of their said husbands and not to be liable in any way for their debts, my said Executor having power at any time with the consent of either of my said daughters to sell or dispose of any of said property and remove the proceeds in other property or to invest the money coming to them in lands or negroes expending such sums of money for their separate use as he may deem proper and on the death of either of my said daughters her share is to vest in her children. I hereby appoint my son George M. Taylor sole Executor of this last will and testament hereby revoking all others. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 11 day of April 1868.

I, James Baird of this County Kentucky on account of my age and from the course of nature am aware that my earthly end is not far distant do make this my will & Testament. I hereby will my soul to Almighty God to be saved by and through the merits of my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and my body to be buried near to and adjoining the remains of my late wife. I do hereby dispose of my property real and personal in the following manner.

I will and bequeath to George P. Baird, William D. Baird, Rebecca A. Baird, Mary Hunt, James A. Baird, and Rachel Baird the children and heirs of my son William L. Baird deceased, one hundred acres of land to be laid off as follows: Beginning on the line of the late Alexander Samuels 2000 acre survey at two beeches and white oak, near to where the farms of Nell and Robert E. Barnett join; thence North with the line of the said 2000 survey - to two beeches near the bank of Little No Creek and East of the Hauserville Road; thence Westwardly with the middle of the Overbrook Road so far that a line run North just outside of the fence of my field on the East side of No Creek to an elm tree on the bank of Little No Creek, thence West to main No Creek and down the same to Lick Creek; thence with said line North 60° East to the Beginning, and whatever the said boundary lacks to make one hundred acres is to be laid off as follows: To begin at where No Creek enters L. Halls farm; thence N 60° West with the original line to an elm tree near Joseph E. Bennetts meadow; thence North so far that a line due East to No Creek and down said to the Beginning, which land in my estimation in the year 1861 was worth two hundred dollars.

I will and bequeath to my daughter Jane Stevens wife of John B. Stevens one hundred acres of land to be laid off as follows: Beginning on Little No Creek where the line dividing the lots of land between Robert Barnett & Samuel Baird and Rebecca his wife as two of the heirs of Alexander Samuels, Decd. crosses Little No Creek; thence with said line Westwardly to a corner on the line of the aforesaid 2000 acre survey near to where John B. Stevens once dug a well; thence South with said line to two beech trees a corner of the aforesaid land, bequeathed to the children of W. L. Baird Decd. thence Westwardly on the center of the Overbrook Road and across the bridge on No Creek so far that a line nearly North East and just outside of the fence of John B. Stevens so far that a line run East to Little No Creek and down the same to the Beginning, which land was worth in the year 1861 the sum of two hundred dollars.

I will and bequeath to John B. Stevens one hundred acres of land bounded on the South by the last mentioned land, on the North by the land of Daniel L. Baird on the West by the line of the aforesaid 2000 acre and on the East by Little No Creek, which land I had given to my daughter Mary Stevens wife of William B. Stevens and they sold by my counsel to John B. Stevens, which land in my judgment was worth two hundred dollars in the year 1861.

Stevens to the Beginning, which land was worth in 1861 three hundred dollars. The distances in this tract was measured when the land was in woods and a greater part being now cleared and of course it will make a difference in measurement but the measurements above stated is to remain as above stated. Baird deceased on the West in part by the land of J. B. Bennett and by land that said A. R. Baird bought of Thomas Samuels, on the North by the land bequeathed to my daughter Rachel Barnett, on the East by the land that I have bequeathed to my daughter Jane Stevens. In giving to my children the said land it has reduced the home farm that I now live on very scarce of timber, not even a sufficiency of good fire wood and in order to remedy that inconvenience I also will and bequeath to my son A. R. Baird all the land that I own on the North side of S. L. Bairds farm and East of James H. Woodward and North of Crabtree and West of Charles H. Stevens, which land is of little value except for timber. I had given to my daughter Sally Samuels wife of D. L. Samuels one hundred acres of land she and her husband D. L. Samuels sold and exchanged
