

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that I Henry Clay Leach of Beaver Dam, County of Ohio and State of Kentucky, Liveryman and Merchant, being in ill health but of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made, and as to my worldly estate and all the property, real and personal or mixed, of which I shall die seized and possessed, or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease, I devise, bequeath and dispose thereof in the manner following, to-wit:-

First my will is, that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall by my Executrix hereinafter named be paid out of my estate as soon after my decease as shall by them be found convenient.

All of my estate real, personal and mixed of which I shall die seized and possessed or to which I shall be entitled at my decease, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Laura E. Leach, and lastly I do nominate and appoint my said wife, Laura E. Leach, to be the Executrix of this my last will and testament without bond.

In Testimony whereof I the said Henry Clay Leach, have to this my last will and testament contained on one sheet of paper to which I have subscribed my name this the twenty sixth day of December, Nineteen hundred.

Henry Clay Leach.

Signed published and declared by the said Henry Clay Leach as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witness thereto.

Nicholas Barrass.

OHIO COUNTY COURT,

Regular Term October, 3rd, 1904.

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Henry Clay Leach, deceased, was this day produced in open Court, and upon the sworn testimony of Nicholas Barrass and C.B.Taylor subscribing witnesses thereto proven to be the last will and testament of said decedent and admitted to probate and record as such.

Given under my hand, this 3rd, day of October, 1904.

M. S. Gayland, P.C.C.Q.

State of Kentucky,) (Sct.
County of Ohio.)

I, Henrietta J. Smith, being of sound mind and body and having a disposing memory make and publish this writing as and for my last will and testament.

1st. I give and bequeath to my four daughters to wit: Casander Rhoads, Matilda Yates, Louisa Moseley and Nancy Jane Yates, all my beds, bedsteads and bedding to be equally divided among them.

2nd. I give and bequeath to my said daughter, and my two sons to wit: Caleb Smith and Kirby E. Smith all the remainder of my property real, personal & mixed to be equally divided among them.

I have made no ~~xxxi~~ provision in the distribution of my property for my two sons, Lawrence Smith and E.P. Smith, because I deem them well provided for out of the estate of their deceased father, having received from their fathers estate a large amount of property more than any of the devisees hereto mentioned, and for that reason have given them no part of my property, and excluded them from my bounty.

3rd. I nominate and appoint my son Caleb Smith, Executor of this my last will and testament, this October, 10th 1895.
