

I Ezekiah Ward of Ohio County Kentucky being of proper age and sound and disposing mind and memory and feeling a just and proper sense of the uncertainty of human life, do make and ordain the following as my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all others.

Item, I give and bequeath to my son Richard A. Ward the farm on which I now resides, being the same Deed to me by Joseph Barnett by Deed dated January 18th 1833. Excepting from the same about 34 Acres, heretofore sold to Thomas Barnett off the North end of said tract. As to be charged in the final distribution of my effects the sum of ($2000) Two Thousand Dollars for the same.

Item, I give and bequeath to my son William Ward the tract of Land he now lives on being about 204 Acres conveyed to me by Nathan Bennett and wife - and he is to account for the same in the final Settlement at the sum of $500. Five Hundred Dollars.

Item, Having heretofore conveyed to my two sons, John R. Ward and James Ward, the farm and tract of Land on which they reside consisting of about 350 Acres, being the same conveyed to me by Eliza Hatfield and partly by Alex R. Bennett and for which I desire that they shall account in the final Settlement of my affairs at the sum of ($1500) Fifteen Hundred Dollars each, they being and to be equals and joint owners of said Property as set forth in the conveyance from me.

Item It being my desire and wish that all my children shall be equal in the final distribution of my Estate I do hereby direct that taking the above and foregoing bequests of Real Estate as a basis and to stand as herein directed and at the several valuations therein set forth, they are each and all to be made equal out of any personal Estate I may hold at my decease.

Item, I do hereby appoint my son Richard A. Ward, sole Executor of this my Last Will and Testament with all the powers usually vesting in Executors.

In Testimony Whereof, Witness my Signature this 16 day of February 1844.
