

for which I hold his note. I have given to my son Millard Owen a young Mule and Saddle. I have given my son Robert Owen a colt and Saddle. At my death I want my house and lot in Owensboro sold and my three youngest boys to wit James L. Owen, Millard Owen, and Robert Owen made equal. James L. Owen having Two Hundred and Forty Five Dollars given to him more than the two young Millard & Robert, and at any time during Jane Owen my wife life that she is able to do so she can make all of my children equal one with the other. I want my wife Jane Owen to have everything in the house and also the household also all of my stock on the farm. I want my three boys James, Millard and Robert to have the use of my farm and either pay the taxes on the same or furnish the means to pay the same, and also to support their Mother to wit; Jane Owen. I want my wife Jane Owen to have a good gentle Saddle horse. I also want her to have the privilege to dispose of the Mules, at my death or at any other time thereafter as she feels so to do. I also want my wife Jane Owen to have the dividend arising from my Bank Stock, Farmers and Traders Bank during her life at her death I want the stock sold and equally divided between my children
