

I Nathaniel Rogers, do make and publish this as my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time made first: I direct that my funeral expenses and all my debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any monies that I may die possessed of or may first come into the hands of my executor.

Secondly: I give and bequeath to Robert L. Roy as my watch and bedding and bed and trunk.

Thirdly: I give and bequeath to Bet Rosah the sum of four dollars.

Fourthly: I give and bequeath to Daniel Porter the sum of four dollars.

Fifthly: I give and bequeath to Jesse Barnes the sum of five dollars.

Sixthly: I give and bequeath to Minnie Borah the sum of four dollars.

Seventhly: I give and bequeath the remainder of my estate to Henry Moore and wife.

Lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint W. L. S. Crutcher and J. C. Daniel my executors.

In witness whereof I do, to this my will, set my hand and seal, this March, 26th 1891.

Nathaniel Rogers

Signed sealed and published in our presence and we have subscribed our names here in the presence of the testator, this 26th day of March 1891.

In the name of God Amen I, James F. Collins of the Ohio County, being now sick and of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament.

I hereby give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Mary M. Collins all of my property both real and personal to be held by her during her life or widowhood and to be kept and held by her for the support and maintenance of herself and our children until the event that she should marry. Then she is to have just such interest or share of my estate as if or as well had been made.

I hereby nominate and appoint my said wife Mary M. Collins to be sole & executor of this my will and request the Court not to require her to give any security in the executor's bond and I give her full power to sell and convey any real or personal estate that she may see proper to sell and to invest the proceeds of the realty in such real estate or personal property as to her may seem best.

Given under my hand and seal, this the 6th day of January 1891.

Ohio County Court
June 11th 1891

The foregoing last will and testament of James F. Collins deceased was this day produced in open court and was proven by the oaths of Saml. Taylor, C. D. Saffy and B. D. Ringo that the said will and codicil was the genuine last will and testament of the said James F. Collins. Whereupon the said will, the codicil thereto with this certificate entered to be duly recorded which is now done accordingly.
Given under my hand this the 11th day of June, 1891, Rowan Holbrook Clerk.

I, George Rauce of Ohio County Kentucky living near Cynthiana but being now in Hartford Ct. by my sick frail home this morning do for the purpose of disposing of my property to my children do make this my last will hereby revoking all other wills heretofore made whether written or verbal and order that all property of whatever kind I may be possessed shall be disposed as herein ordered and not other wise.

1st I give and bequeath to my two youngest sons J. W. Rauce and L. Lee Rauce the same and to be divided equally which I now live to be equally divided between them in consideration that the said J. W. and L. Lee continue at all times to suitably and properly support maintain and provide for myself and beloved wife, Sally during our natural lives and to see that each of us are suitably buried in a Christian manner at our deaths.

2nd I have heretofore given to each of my three older sons W. L. Rauce, C. J. Rauce and C. H. Rauce the sum of five hundred dollars each and have loaned to some of my said money and took their notes for the same loaned and now hold these said notes. Now should the notes or notes of any of my said sons be a sum greater than his share at the final winding up of my estate, it is my will and desire and I so direct that the said excess over a share shall not be collected off of theirs.

3rd It is my will that all my personal property including cash and cash notes shall remain with and be controlled by my beloved wife (she being longer life than I) till her death and after her death her estate is left shall be equally divided among my said five sons so that each shall have an equal share, only modified by the other provision of this will as to the excess of notes that may stand against them, it being my intention that each of my children shall share equally in all things I own as to any excess of money I may have let them have in my life time.

The consideration for settling of my two youngest sons the former and last of which is the support of self and wife and because I have not advanced neither of them the sum of five hundred dollars as I have done to each of my three older sons, 4th I appoint my two sons J. W. Rauce and L. Lee Rauce my executors with full power to carry out its provisions. Done at Hartford Ct. this 22nd day of February 1891.
