

and testament now this day produced in open court are the papers of E. L. Hamilton and Albert May, two of the other my witnesses thereto was produced the said Sublett's last will and testament wherein the court ordered that said will be probated and recorded, which is now done.
Given under my hand this 10th day of March, 1872,

Narcissus Albright Clerk

I, Hamilton Barnes of the County of Ohio and State of Kentucky hereby now will stipulate in years and remembrance the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills made by me either written or otherwise.
First: I have made an advancement of Six hundred Dollars to my children now named to Richard H. Barnes; Joseph A. Barnes, to Dorcas E. Barnes, to Elijah H. Barnes, to Henry M. Barnes, and to David Hamilton Barnes, and then each of them are to account to my estate in the final division after my death for that sum.
Second: I have heretofore given to each of my children as have left a horse and a cow each and the horse and cow given to each, I rate equal and each of my children, as I have not given a horse and cow to any I should be before give a horse and cow to the rest of my children that have not yet received them then my executor hereafter named to give to each of my said children that may not have received a horse and cow.
One horse and one cow each and should there be no such stock or not a sufficient amount to supply them or all of them then my executor my executors are to pay them a sum of money to each that in the opinion of my executors, will make them equal to those of my children that have received a horse and cow.
Second: I will and bequeath to Dorcas E. Barnes, John A. Barnes, and Samuel Thomas Barnes my home farm as the lines and corners are now known since running of the part that I let David H. Barnes have each to share equal in the farm and part of land and to their heirs forever.
Third: It is my will that after my death all of personal property, money, cash notes and choses in action of every kind after paying any debts that I may owe to be equally divided among all my living children and should any of my children be dead and have left heirs, then such part as would go to my child or shall go to the child or children of such of children as may have died.

Fourth: I do hereby appoint my sons Richard H. Barnes and Joseph A. Barnes my executors of this my last will and testament and give them full authority to carry out this will in all its provisions.
Witness my hand this 30th day of November, 1885.

I, J. D. Barnes, do hereby certify that the foregoing is the last will and testament of Hamilton Barnes.

I, Hamilton Barnes feeling that my daughter may not be able to handle the land of Hamilton Barnes too degraded to them. I now make this alteration in this will and instead of giving to my said daughter the farm and part of land as before, I bequeath to each of them the sum of one hundred Dollars in cash and the land to remain to the benefit of my general estate and I now direct that my executors be and they are hereby empowered to sell and carry my said part of land and divide the proceeds equally between all my children as also any surplus that may remain of my personal estate and should any of my children die before final division and leave a child or children then such child or children shall take such part as the father or mother would take in leaving.
Witness my hand this 1st day of March, 1888.
