

In the name of God, amen: I, Joel H. Eaves of the County of Ohio and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory for which I thank Almighty God, and calling to mind the uncertainty of human life, and desiring to dispose of all such estate as has pleased God to bestow upon me, I give and bequeath the same in manner following that is to say, First I give and bequeath to my dear wife Rebecca J. Eaves all my property both real and personal so long as she remains my widow or during her natural life; provided, nevertheless that in case she marries at her death, I will and bequeath the same to my daughter Edmonia Eaves.
Secondly I will and bequeath all the money that I have on hand and also due me by promissory notes, as follows: First I will to my Grandson Wm. Eaves ten dollars, Secondly, I will to my daughter Scintia J. Eaves Ten dollars, Third I will to my son John B. Eaves Ten dollars, Fourth I will to my son Jas. H. Eaves Ten dollars, Fifth I will to my daughter Isabell Eaves Ten dollars Sixth I will that I should be more than the above named fifty dollars and enough to give me a decent burial. The balance to go to my wife Rebecca and her daughter Edmonia Eaves. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal the Twenty-first day of September one Thousand eight hundred and eighty two.
