

I Richard Hoover of Ohio County Kentucky feeling that I am getting old and am somewhat feeble in body but of sound mind and disposing memory do for the purpose of disposing of all the property both real and personal, do make this my last will and testament hereby revoking all other wills heretofore by me made. 1st

It is my will that at my death my body shall be decently buried and that the expenses of my burial and all just debts that I may be owing at the time of my death shall be paid out of the first funds that may come to the hands of my executors hereinafter named. 2nd It is my will that, and I do hereby will and bequeath to my beloved wife Sarah Jane Hoover all the land and all the personal property, cash and cash notes and choses in action that I may die possessed of for and during her natural life - provided she should not marry again and thus cease to be my widow - but should she marry again then this bequest to her shall cease and be void and go to each of my children, equally share and share equal. And in like manner should she not marry again and die my widow, then all my property that remains after her death I will and bequeath to my six children to be equally divided among them but should any of my children be dead leaving child or children, then the share of my child shall go to its child or children if more than one to be equally divided among them. I shall name no executor but leave that to the proper authorities of my County to appoint some competent person to wind up my estate consistent to this my last will and testament. 3rd Whereas I let my son George B. Hoover now deceased have six hundred dollars, which has now to this day been repaid to me now for the purpose of making my children equal. It is my will that the six children of my said son George B. Hoover or the survivors of them be paid in the said six hundred dollars claims as said before they shall receive anything farther out of my estate. 4th It is my will that in the settlement of my estate that my son William W. Hoover be charged with the sum of One hundred & seventy dollars, which I have heretofore advanced to him. August 31st 1887.

Richard Hoover.

Attest:
J. P. Sunderfur
A. B. Baird.

I Richard Hoover desire and do hereby make this codicil to my will heretofore made to wit: On the 31st day of August 1887, said alterations by this codicil are as follows:

1st I give and bequeath to my daughter Dolly M. Hancock the sum of Fifty dollars. 2nd I give and bequeath to my son Stephen R. Hoover the sum of One Hundred and Sixty dollars. 3rd I will and bequeath to my grandson James Hatfield the sum of Fifty Dollars. The bequests made in this codicil is to be paid to the persons named herein out of any funds not specially willed by my said will of the 31st of August 1887. Signed this 17th day of September 1888.

Richard Hoover.

Witnessed by
A. B. Baird.
P. C. Hoover.

Ohio County Court }
July Term 1890. } Set.

The foregoing will or this codicil was at this term of Court filed and proven to be the last will and testament of Richard Hoover deceased by the oaths of J. P. Sunderfur and A. B. Baird as subscribing witnesses thereto. Whereupon the same was ordered to be probated and record which is now done.

Att:

T. J. Smith. C. O. C. C.

This Indenture made this day by me, being sound in mind and fully competent to attend to the same and in view of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, I make this my last will and testament.

- 1st - I will my body to the earth from whence it came and my soul to God who gave it.
- 2nd - I will and will my beloved wife Nancy Pitty One dollar.
- 3rd - I will & bequeath to my oldest daughter Anna C. Pitty One dollar.
- 4th - I will and bequeath to my 2nd daughter Martha E. Johnson One dollar.
- 5th - I will and bequeath to my son J. M. Pitty One dollar.
- 6th - I will and bequeath to my daughter Helen Pallard One dollar.
- 7th - I will and bequeath to daughter

Amunday Park One Dollar.

8th - I will and bequeath to my son J. H. Petty One Dollar.

9th - I will and bequeath to my son Joseph Petty the residue of my personal property and real estate after all my just debts and funeral expenses are paid. Having the utmost confidence in the financial ability and integrity of my son Joseph Petty I appoint him my executor and pray the Court that neither bond nor security be required of him in execution of same. In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this December 11th A.D. 1888.

John Petty.

Witnesses { J. L. Burton,
Wallace Nasson.

Ohio County Court & sct

August Term 1890.

The foregoing will having been heretofore filed, was at this term proved by the oaths of J. L. Burton and Wallace Nasson, the attesting witnesses thereto, to be the last will and testament of John Petty deceased whereupon the same & this certificate have been duly admitted to record.

J. J. Smith Clerk.

I, Parker Hall of the City of Lincoln in the County of Logan and State of Illinois being of sound mind and memory do hereby make publish and declare my last will and testament.

First: I wish that all just debts against myself or my estate shall be paid. - I then give to my beloved wife Catharine Ann Hall, in lieu and place of all dower, homestead rights, widows award, allowances or claims of any kind or character against my estate the premises where I now at the date of this will live, with so much of the furniture in the house as she may choose, and the income from Four Thousand Dollars: - said premises, furniture and income to be enjoyed by her during the term of her natural life and after her death said premises, furniture and the principal from which said income is derived, shall be divided among my children, living at the date of this will, or their descendants and the descendants of my son Wallace as hereinafter provided. The children of a deceased parent taking the share which such parent would have received if living: -

To Burgess C. Hall my grandchild son of my deceased son Burgess C. Hall I give, devise and bequeath the farm lying on Green River in the County of Ohio in the state of Kentucky known as the farm bought by me of William Foster containing about one hundred and thirty four acres to have and to hold to him and his heirs in fee simple forever and also One hundred dollars in money.

To William C. Hall my grandchild, son of my deceased son William C. Hall, I give and bequeath four hundred dollars in money provided that he outlives me, should he not outlive me, then that sum shall be part of my estate and divided in it. - The said gift to the said Burgess C. and William C. Hall are to be all they are in any sort to receive from my estate, the remainder of my estate being divided among my other heirs children and grandchildren or their descendants or the trustees thereof hereafter mentioned in the manner following, the descendants of a deceased child taking the share which such deceased child if living I have at various times during my lifetime, supplied to my children certain sums for the purpose of starting them out in the world, which sums will be found charged to them in a memorandum book in which are individual accounts of my said children with myself. These sums to the amount of fifteen hundred dollars for each of my said children are not to be deducted from the share of each such child in my estate; when any such child has so been supplied and charged with more than fifteen hundred dollars the excess over that sum shall be deducted from his or her share in my estate.