

Ohio County Court.

February term 1890.

The foregoing will was at this term of court filed and proved to be the last will and testament of Billy Williams deceased, by the evidence of Elijah C. Brown Ed. Post Gulton the subscribing witnesses thereto. Whereupon the same was ordered to be duly recorded which is now done,
J. J. Smith

September 4th, 1889

In the name of God Amen:

I Clayton J. Wallace of Hartford Ohio County and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory do hereby make and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills by me at any time heretofore made. First, I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Ella Wallace, all of my estate, both real and personal, second And I hereby appoint my wife Ella Wallace my executor and request that she qualify without bond. Third, I hereby appoint my said wife Guardian of my children and request of the Court that she qualify as such without bond.

Clayton J. Wallace

Witnesses

Signed in our presence
Dyella Shown
Georgia Wallace

Ohio County Court
March term 1891

The foregoing will was at this term of Court filed, and proved to be the last will and testament of Clayton J. Wallace deceased by the evidence of Georgia Wallace a subscribing witness thereto, and J. J. Smith writer and witness thereto. Whereupon the same was ordered to be duly recorded which is now done.

J. J. Smith C. C. C.

I, John W. Taylor, being of sound mind and memory do make and publish this my last will and testament. I will and bequeath to my beloved wife, Fannie W. Taylor all my property real and personal and mixed to have and hold and dispose of by deed, will or in any manner she may wish. I appoint the said Fannie W. Taylor sole executrix of this will and direct that she qualify and act without giving any bond or security as such executrix and direct that no security be required of her.

I also appoint the said Fannie W. Taylor Guardian for our child, Flora W. Taylor and direct that no bond be required of her as such guardian and that she be permitted to qualify and act as such guardian without giving any bond or security as such. I further direct that no inventories or sale bill of my estate be reported or returned to the County Court, and direct that my said executrix be not required to make any report of her acts as executrix to Court, all laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

Witness my hand this 27th day of January 1890

John W. Taylor

Subscribed by John W. Taylor in our presence and by us in his presence at his request the day and date above written.

Attest

Wood Tinsley
Jesse V. Shart
W. Allen
W. S. Tinsley

Ohio County Court
March term 1890

The foregoing will was at this term of Court filed and proved to be the last will and testament of John W. Taylor deceased by the evidence of J. W. Allen and W. S. Tinsley subscribing witnesses thereto. Whereupon the same was ordered to be duly recorded which is now done.

J. J. Smith C. C. C.