I Joshua D. Render, of McHenry Ohio County Ky, knowing the uncertainty of life at my advanced age, but being of sound mind and disposing memory do, on this the 16th day of May 1896 and in my seventy fifth year, hereby make my last will and testament hereby revoking all other Wills; in manner and form, as follows;

1. I hereby will to my son John 48 acres of land in this Ohio County which lays South of the land of my son Robert and North of the land of my son Elijah, also fifty two acres of land in the same County lying North of my son Robert, the last mentioned piece of land, being a piece of my original 420 acre Survey.

2. I will and bequeath to my son Henry one hundred acres of land off the 1120 acre Survey, North of and adjoining John.

3. I will and bequeath to my son Richard, Subject to the life estate of my beloved wife, Jennie, in the house yard, garden, barn and barn lot, the residue of my said 420 acre Survey including the said house (my present residence), yard garden, barn and barn lot.

4. I hereby will and bequeath to my beloved wife, Jennie, for and during her natural life all Mineral rights including my contract for royalty, with the Central Coal and Iron Company, in and to the above described 420 acre of land; and the bequests above made to my sons John, Henry and Richard does not include any Mineral or Coal rights in and to the said lands. I also will to my said wife all of my house hold and kitchen furniture and all other personal property of every sort and kind, except such live stock, tools and implements, as I may die possessed of, which I hereby give my son Richard it being his intention to reside with my said wife.

5. Upon the death of my said wife I will that all royalties and profits of every sort to be derived from Coal and other Minerals on all my lands be divided, equally, share and share alike between my sons Robert, Elijah, John, Henry and Richard; my daughter Mary and Bettie and my granddaughter Laura S. Brine, Child of my deceased daughter Cythia.

6. Having the utmost confidence in my son Robert

This is a duplicate of the original of the above will and testament of David Gentry, decd. and is being produced in open court and upon the sworn testimony of H. B. Taylor and Albert Patterson, the subscribing witnesses thereto proven to be the last will and testament of said decedent, whereupon the Court ordered the same to be admitted to probate and record.
