

I James B. Todd of the County of Ohio and State of Kentucky, being of sound and disposing memory and wishing to dispose of my property otherwise than as provided by the laws of Kentucky do make this my last will and testament first is my will and desire that after my death all my just debts be paid: Second I give my Grandson Otis Walker one hundred and six acres of land lying about two miles south of Potosi in Ohio County Kentucky, it being the balance of a two hundred and sixteen acre tract having heretofore conveyed one hundred acres of said tract to my Daughter Mary Murphy and her husband Tyler Murphy said Otis to come into possession of the above described land at the expiration of his term of service in the U.S. Army provided I am not alive otherwise at my death third it is my will and desire that my Grandson Otis Walker have the use and benefit of the land devised in the second paragraph herein but in no event shall sell dispose of or convey same by deed otherwise until he arrives at the age of forty one years and any sale disposition or conveyance that he may make of said land before he arrives at the age of forty one years shall be null and void fourth I hereby direct my executor to pay to my Grandson Otis Walker two hundred dollars at the expiration of his term of service in the U.S. Army: Fifth I devise and bequeath to my Daughter Mary Murphy and her heirs all the residue real personal and mixed of my estate: Sixth it is my will and desire that in the event of my said Grandson Otis Walker die without lawful issue that all the property herein devised and bequeathed to him shall revert and I hereby devise and bequeath same to my Daughter Mary Murphy and her heirs: Seventh I Respectfully request the Judge of the County Court of Ohio County to appoint my Daughter Mary Murphy, executrix of this will without bond or surety.

Witness J. E. Butler } James B. Todd
A. B. Grant {
this April 9th 1902

State of Kentucky }
County of Ohio }
Ohio County Court Regular Term May 5th 1902. The foregoing will was this day filed in open Court and after the testimony of J. E. Butler and A. B. Grant the attesting witnesses then after being sworn it was ordered to Probate and Record which is now done according to this May 5th 1902. M. S. Ragland, C. C.

J. R. Walker of the town of Fordsville, County of Ohio, and State of Kentucky, being of sound Mind and Memory, do make publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, to-wit: First- all my just debts and funeral expenses shall be first fully paid.

Second. I give devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate both real and personal to my beloved wife, Helen C. Walker, to have and to hold to her my said wife and to her heirs and assigns forever.

Third- I nominate and appoint my said wife, Helen C. Walker, to be the executor of this, my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 18th day of April, A.D. 1902.
J. R. Walker.

Signed in the presence of
J. W. McCarty
O. C. Adair.

Ohio County Court.
Regular Term June 2nd 1902.

The foregoing paper purporting to be the last Will and testament of J. R. Walker, deceased, was this day produced in open Court, and upon the sworn testimony of J. W. McCarty and O. C. Adair the attesting witnesses thereto, was ~~found~~ ^{proven} to be the last will and testament of J. R. Walker, deceased, and ordered to probate and to record which is now done. Given under my hand this 2nd day of June 1902.

M. S. Ragland, Clerk
By, U. S. Ragland, D. C.