I, James S. Coleman, being of sound mind and disposing memory and knowing that my earthly end is constantly approaching and I being of advanced age and the victim of divers diseases which threaten the termination of my natural life, do now ordain this my last will and testament and hereby appoint my wife Josephine and my son John P. Coleman my Executors or either of them that may be my survivor. Now I, therefore, ordain and desire, that at my death my wife, the said Josephine shall become sole heir of all my earthly effects, whether personal or real or both, To have and to hold for her own use and benefit during her natural life, and at the end of her life, whatever of my earthly possessions may remain shall remain in possession of said John P. Coleman to be disposed of used or appropriated as to him in his discretion and judgment may seem to be right. Written with my own hand day and date above written.

Witnesses, R.H. Stevens,
P.E. Hocker.

James S. Coleman.
