

In the name of God Amen, I Levi A. Tucker of the county of Ohio and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of life, do therefore make, order, publish and declare this to be my last will & testament, that is to say, I will and bequeath to my wife Elizabeth Tucker all of my real estate and personal property during her natural life or widowhood, I do direct that if she should marry, then all of the real and personal property remaining in my hand to equally divide between her and my three children with the exception of the bed clothing, I will her to have all of the bed clothing which she has made since our marriage. Furthermore I will and direct for her to have full control of all of my property and to use the same as she thinks best. I will for her to sell such personal property as she deems proper and to pay all of my lawful debts. I desire I make constitute and appoint my wife Elizabeth Tucker to be my Executor of this my last will & testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name this nineteenth of November in the year One thousand and Eight hundred and eighty-three.

L. A. Tucker

att: L. L. Fleenor
J. T. Stewart
Wm. Fleenor

In addition to the above will and testament I Levi A. Tucker do hereby will and direct that there shall be no bond required of my Executor. I do hereby declare this to be my will, this done and signed by me the twentieth day of November in the year One thousand and Eight hundred and eighty-three.

L. A. Tucker

att: Wm. Fleenor
A. H. Davis

State of Kentucky, }
Ohio County Court,
September Term 1884, 3ct.

J. D. J. Smith, Clerk of the Ohio County Court, do hereby certify that the foregoing last will & testament of L. A. Tucker deceased was produced in open court at this term, and was duly proved by the subscribing witnesses stated to be the last will & testament, then upon the same was ordered to probate & record which is done, witness my hand as clerk of the aforesaid court.

J. D. J. Smith, C. C. C.
By J. M. Kirby, S. C.

I John Raley being sick and in bed and conscious of the fact that my time on earth is approaching near to a close, and being yet of sound mind for which I am thankful to God, I make this my last will and testament which is as follows, to-wit: 1st after the payment of all my just debts, I give and bequeath to my two living daughters Julia A. Taylor wife of H. L. Taylor and Nancy Jane Miller wife of Robert A. Miller one lot and two houses in the Town of Keokuk and also to each of them one mulch cow. 2nd I give and bequeath to my wife Sarah H. Raley all the balance of my property lands, tenements, crops, household furniture all other effects to have and to hold during her natural life or widowhood, if she or she said Sarah H. Raley gives birth to an heir after this date (which according to the course of nature I think she will) then all the property both real and personal is to belong to said heir if said heir lives, that is all that I have bequeathed to her at her death or marriage and further if such birth does not occur or should it occur and she has not live then at her death or at her marriage said lands and other property to revert to my lawful heirs as follows: To my daughters Mary A. Day's heir, Julia A. Taylor and Nancy J. Miller each a sufficient amount to make them equal to what I have given my two sons Jonathan and J. W. Raley, then after they are equal the balance to be divided equal among all, and I further request that if my wife my stepson stays with his mother and helps her to support herself that she will have him to raise himself a house for his own use & benefit further appoint John L. Miller as my Executor to see that this will is carried into effect.