

Be it known that I Milton Taylor of the County of Ohio and State of Kentucky, being of sound and disposing mind at present, and calling to mind the uncertainty of life, do hereby make and publish this writing as my true and only last Will and Testament hereby revoking any will heretofore by me made and published. In the first place, I desire that my Executor hereinafter named pay as speedily as possible all my just debts, and the expense attending my funeral.

Item 2^d I hereby further desire, devise and bequeath to my niece Mrs Julia Ann Mitchell wife of Thompson Mitchell all of my property both real, personal and mixed, to be hers and her heirs and assigns forever. My realty consists of about two hundred and thirty acres, and is and was the same land willed by my Father Thomas Taylor to me and to which will reference may be had. The said Julia Ann Mitchell is to have the absolute fee simple title to said land and any other land that I may die possessed of together with all my personal and any other mixed property to be hers and her heirs and assigns, without any reservation whatever. Item 3^d I hereby appoint my friend Thompson Mitchell as my Executor to fully carry into effect my wishes as expressed in this my last will and Testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name in the presence of these witnesses this 2^d day of November A. D. 1877.

I Milton Taylor do hereby make and publish this as a codicil to my last will; which was executed by me on the 2nd day of November 1877, and signed by R. S. Moseley, Wm Hardwick & Gas A. Thomas as witnesses thereto. 1st I hereby republish and affirm each and all the items of said will, and desire that it be carried out in every particular; so far as the devises therein are contained.

2nd The only change I desire made in my said will above referred to is this, that I hereby appoint and constitute my niece Julia Ann Mitchell my executrix to carry out the provision of my said will and desire and request of the Court, that no surety be required of her. Witness my hand, this 9th day of November 1888.

May Term 1889. } Set.

The foregoing Last Will and Testament of Milton Taylor deceased, was at this term of said Court duly proven, and ordered to be probated and record, which is now done. Witness my hand, this 6th day of May 1889.

T. J. Smith. Clerk.

Knowing the uncertainty of life, my advanced age, and the recent changes in my family affairs, I have concluded to make this as my last Will hereby revoking all others. Item 1st I give to my wife Kitty my present dwelling house and Lot and Stable and pasture Lots, to be held her during her natural life - also all my house hold and kitchen furniture to be held in the same way, and also one third of the rents received from the Taylor Coal mining company, or any other company working the same mines. Item 2nd All the balance of my property of every description, I will to my executors to be held in trust, for the following purposes. To sell all the personal and perishable property, and the money and for payments of debts if any, and funeral expenses. To rent any of my property or coal lands, on such terms as they may deem best, to collect any sums coming to me, from any source, and pay any expenses for schooling or clothing my two grand children, and my step daughter Mary Ellen Dribble charging each with the amount so expended - and should I have any children by my present wife - I wish them attended to in the same way. Item 3rd I desire that my executors (if they can do it from the income arising from my estate) to pay my blind Niece Eliza Davis the sum of Two hundred Dollars ($200. annually out of my estate during her life. Item 4th on the arrival at full age of all my children should I have any by my second wife I desire that my property be divided among them as follows: My own children to have full shares and my grand children and adopted daughter Mary Ellen Dribble have half shares, but having given my son Thomas a lease for life of certain lands as his share of my estate he is not to have any share in the balance of my estate unless he brings those lands into the division and all my personal estate so divided is to vest in my children and grand children, and adopted daughter, as stated above for and during their natural lives - and then pass in fee simple to the heirs of those who die leaving issue. Item 5th I wish my wife to have all the books she brought with her and such as she may want of mine, and the Library kept whole so long as my children or grand children are living in the house. I appoint my wife Kitty and my friends H. D.
