

I Richard Stevens of Ohio County Kentucky, desiring to make distribution of all my property both real and personal among my children do make this my last will and testament hereby revoking all other wills heretofore made by - whether written or oral.

Stem 1st

It is my will and I so direct that should my just debt be owing by me at my death and all funeral expenses shall be paid out of any funds that may be left at my death with as little delay as practicable.

2 I will and bequeath to my daughter Hannah M. Chamberlin my home place and farm and houses thereon to her and her heirs forever. This is in consideration of her providing for me heretofore and hereafter so long as I live, and she shall not bring any charge against me or my estate for my maintenance. There is 79 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres of land in the home place.

3 The 350 acres of land in the Rough Creek flats in two tracts I will and bequeath to be equally divided quality and quantity to be considered to all of children and such of my children as may be dead at my decease are jointly to have the same share as their parents would have if living. My children and grand children the children of such of my children now dead and of such of them as may yet die before me who are to share in the bottom land are as follows: Clayton R. Spruill, Joseph R and Bill, these four are the children of my deceased son Henry Stevens and are jointly to have one share. To Hannah Bennett wife of L. F. Bennett and the small children of my deceased Pruden who married Sam Barnett these are one the grand daughter and the others my great grand daughter they are each to have one share they are child of John Stevens my deceased son and the little girl my great grand child is the grand daughter of my son George deceased each of these are entitled to one share. And to my daughter Sally A. wife of Wm Harris she is to have one share. To Richard A. Stevens is to have one share. To Amanda A. wife of William Mulligan is to have one share. To my son Joseph C. Stevens one share.

4 I will that all my personal property be sold as soon after my death and the amount arising therefrom to be divided equally among all my children excepting my daughter Hannah Chamberlin who is to have no part in any of my estate but the home place heretofore given her this is to be in full of her part of my estate.

5 I have heretofore made advancements to various ones of my children and have their notes for those advancements all these notes are to be counted with interest thereon are to be counted to and charged to each one who gave the notes provided the amount does not exceed the amount of a share in which case the surplus over is to be collected off of such to make up to share of my children who may lack I have paid on the land on which my daughter Amanda Mulligan the sum of Two hundred dollars which she must account for And I have paid and expended for my grand daughter Hannah Bennett wife of L. F. Bennett the sum of fifty dollars which must account for in final distribution. It being my will and desire that all of my children or their heirs shall share equally in my estate except as heretofore provided for in the case of my daughter Hannah M. Chamberlin.

I will that my son in law John C. Chamberlin is appointed my sole Executor with full and ample powers to execute and carry out the provisions of this my last will.

Given under my hand this 22 day of November 1887.

Witnessed by

A. B. Baird

W. A. Gibson

Ohio County Court, } 3rd

May Term 1894

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Richard Stevens decd. was proven by the sworn testimony of W. A. Gibson an attesting witness thereto and of F. A. Baird who testified to the genuineness of the signature of A. B. Baird the other attesting witness ^{and} was adjudged by the Court to be the last will and testament of said decedent and thereupon ordered to record which is now done.

Attest: Rowan Holbrook, Clk.