In the name of God Amen. I George Austin being Sensible that I am weak in body but sound in mind do make this my last will and Testament I desire my body to be decently interred and my debts first paid off. And the remainder of my property consisting of three negroes namely Frank Jackson and Milly two tracts of land one containing one hundred acres and the other containing sixty acres (originally all one tract) and all my debts and demands and every disposition of my personal property I will to my beloved wife Amanda Austin during her widowhood. And in the event she should marry my will and desire is that she should receive only so much of my Estate as the Law would allow if no will was made and the remainder to be equally divided amongst my children. Sons and share alike. I have a large family and my wife could not support them with any ease if I simply left her thirds hence I desire that she should have the property as above mentioned. I nominate and appoint William Hender as my Executor to carry this will into effect. Given under my hand this 27th day of December 1862
