Indexed Know all men by these presents that I Solomon Chapman being of sound mind and of disposing memory do make this writing my last will and testament. First, having already given my son Ellis McChapman one hundred & fifty acres of land on which he now lives and believing that to be his full portion of my estate, I have also given my son Frank Chapman one hundred and sixty five acres of land adjoining Sen. W. Nelson and Mrs. P. Keadore which I think is his full portion ^{entire} of my estate, believing this to be just I give them nothing more by this will.
 Secondly, I give to my wife Elizabeth McChapman forty five acres of land including the room in which I now live, that is the West room of my family residence also to include the kitchen, smoke house and one half of the well, to have and to hold for her use and benefit during her lifetime, said forty five acres of land to commence in the center of the North side of the Stark Chimney of my dwelling house thence North three West to my son Ellis McChapman's line, thence with said line to his corner on a white oak on the Harford Road, thence with said Road North immediately opposite the said Stark Chimney, thence West to the Beginning, so as to include forty five acres as near as possible in a square tract, with all the appurtenances thereto to have and to hold during her lifetime. In addition to the above I also bequeath to my wife Elizabeth McChapman one hundred dollars in cash. Thirdly, I give and bequeath all the remaining portion of my estate, including cash, cash notes stock, proceeds of sale of land &c. to my three daughters viz. Artemesia A. Daylors heirs, Safinia C. Wise and Elizabeth E. Williams to be equally divided among ^{heirs} bondholders that is Artemesia A. Daylors portion is to be equally divided among her children, saidy. I hereby nominate and appoint my sons Ellis McChapman and William R. Chapman the Executors of my will. If they will do the business without any convocation they shall not be required to give bond, but if they are not willing to do this they may give bond and receive the legal fees for their trouble. This done and signed this February the eighth day, 1869.

I Samuel O. Peyton of Harford Ohio County Kentucky do hereby make, ordain and publish this to be my last will and testament:

My wife Mary W. Peyton, having the same filial affection that I have for our children, and I, having full confidence that she will take care of, and finally make a just disposition and distribution of my estate, I hereby devise to her all my property, both real and personal, to be held and owned by her, in fee simple title, and I nominate her my sole executrix and ask the Court, to require no security of her in the bond required by law. Given under my hand, this 6th December 1869

In the name of God amen, I Charles Hamilton, being in full health and knowing that life is uncertain, and death certain, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and ordain, this my last will and testament, revoking all others heretofore made by me.

First I wish all my honest debts paid, and especially those due to my sister in law, for which she holds my notes, and my funeral expenses. The remainder of all my real and personal property, goods and chattels, rights and effects, is for the benefit of my loving wife and children, my said wife to have her third or a child's part, at her death, the land is all to be my wife until my youngest child becomes of lawful age, to enable her to raise them, (the children), at which time an equal distribution to each of my children, by sale or otherwise as may seem best for them, my wife being at her discretion one third or a child's part. In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this 21st day of February 1870.

I Blackstone Taylor of Ohio County, Ky do make this my last will and testament.

1st I wish all my just debts after my death, to be punctually and speedily paid.

2^d I will to my wife, the farm I now live on, containing about 300 acres and after her death to my son Samuel P. Taylor. I also will to my wife all my house and kitchen furniture, to be disposed of as she may see proper, and also give to her all my interest being one half of all cattle, hogs and sheep now on the farm, the other half belongs to my son Samuel P. and after her death, I wish all her interest in said stock and proceeds, that may arise from the cultivation of the farm, I wish to be equally divided, between my four living daughters. I desire that the farm, I will to my wife and Samuel P. Taylor, should be cultivated by them jointly during her life, and that she to hire one hand to assist her, and in the event, that they cannot agree, as to the proper hand she is to furnish, I desire the same to be settled by my executors hereafter named.

In consideration of the provisions, heretofore made for my son Samuel P. Taylor, I enjoin on him to see that his mother, is well provided for, and if he fails, he is then and in that event, to be made equal with my other sons. I wish my executors, to sell all of the property, except the farm heretofore willed to my wife, that she may wish sold or may not have use for, and the proceeds applied to the payment of my debts.

I will and bequeath to my daughter Sue Ann Taylor three hundred dollars.

I will and bequeath to Cordelia Parnard two hundred dollars.

I will and bequeath to Bettie McHenry two hundred dollars.

I will and bequeath to Horace Taylor two hundred dollars.

I then desire after the above is completed with, all the balance of my estate, to be equally divided between my four daughters Sue Ann Taylor, Bettie McHenry, Cordelia Parnard, and Dorcas Stahl.

The note I hold on John M. Leach for $200- issued to me about the year 1857 or 8, I wish to be collected by my executors, and paid to my four grand sons, William P. Joseph S. Marmon S. and John McSpach, when they become 21 years of age, equally divided.

I hereby appoint John P. Taylor and Elijah Parnay, my executors and empower them, to sell and convey the tract of land, I now own known as the Free Massey land, and also empower them to dispose of my rail road stock, if they may deem best.

If there should be any debts, antedated by my wife and Samuel P. before her death, I desire the same to be paid out of the proceeds of the farm willed to them, if there should not be sufficient profits arising from the same, to pay said debts, then I desire enough of the said farm be sold to pay them.

I have heretofore decided to my sons John P. Taylor and William P. Taylor.
