Saml. H. Cox Clerk

I, Sarah W. Mitchell of Warfield Ohio County, Clerk, being of sound mind and disposing memory but weak in body and frail in health do make, ordain and establish this my last will and Testament, It is my will and desire that what little I may ever be found as soon as may be after my decease, It is further my will and desire that all the money of which I may die possessed, and all that may be realized from my notes, mortgages, judgments and my claims in action of whatever kind and character be divided between my two dearly beloved ^{children} ~~daughters~~ Jane E. Mitchell and Martha L. Leebell, in thirds to my said sister Jane and one third to my said sister Martha. It is my will and desire that my said beloved sister Jane E. Mitchell divide my bed, bedding and furniture and my horse, harnessed and bedding between her two youngest daughters Sally Black Meady and Elizabeth Hopkins Mitchell in such manner and proportion as she may think best and proper. It is my will and desire that Mrs Eliza S. Hudson shall keep my chair as a token of my esteem for and gratitude to her former kindness to me. I will and bequeath to my said sister Jane S. Mitchell all the rest of my goods and property not above disposed of, and having full faith and confidence in my said sister Jane I hereby nominate her executrix of this my last will and Testament, and request that the court require of her neither bond or security.

I modify the last request to the extent of giving and bequeathing to my beloved wife or rather great niece Domine Price Gibson my gold chain and pocket.
In explanation of my foregoing will I would say that I have given the preference to my two beloved daughters above mentioned, in the disposal of the bulk of my little property, because I feel that they need it more than any other relations, and I have not enough to do any of them much good if divided among all. In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name this the 4 day of January A.D. 1879.
I would further add that is - will and desire that my sister Jane purchase three sets of plain but nice marble tomb stones appropriately inscribed and have them placed at the graves of my beloved dead and myself, that is one set at each of the graves of my husband and daughter and myself. Said marble to be paid for before the division of my estate.
Sarah M. Mitchell.

Subscribed by Mrs Sarah M. Mitchell in our presence and witnessed by us in her presence and in the presence of each other.

I, William L. Rowan of this County, Publicly do make and ordain this to be my last will and Testament revoking all others previously made.
I direct first that all just debts against me be paid.
I want no public sale to be made of my household property, but I desire that my children shall divide it out among themselves, and as to my other personal property such as horses, cattle, hogs and farming implements I desire sold or disposed of by my executors.

I have heretofore given deeds to each of my children and I now in addition bequeath to my daughter Sally Cox for and during her life and at her death to her heirs the following described tract of land, all the rest and residue of my home farm lying West of that part deed to my daughter, but with the exception of the road land, Commencing at a line S. W. corner to Hickory Sassafras and white oak, thence S. 77 West to a stake in the original North boundary line, thence with said line to the S. E. corner of the tract heretofore deeded to my said daughter Sally, which well be about 300 acres and is to be in addition to the 260 acres heretofore conveyed to her.
It is my express wish and I here make it as a limitation on the above bequest that no timber shall be cut from off said land during the life time of my daughter Sally, except such as may be used for the purpose of fencing up and rearing the land.
I bequeath to my son William L. Rowan the town lot I own in the town of Romney and a tract of fifty acres of land in McLean County, known as the Rowing land. This in addition to the 300 and odd acres I have heretofore conveyed to him.
I have conveyed to my daughter Abigail Ford 313 acres which is here ratified and to my daughter Jane 207 acres which is also ratified.
There will be some land left on each end of my home tract bought of Wallace which is not conveyed or disposed of and I will this to be divided equally according to quality and quantity, among my three daughters Sally, Abigail and Jane.
