

But it known by these presents, that I Lucretia Stearns being in feeble health and of sound mind, and disposing memory, do order and ~~make~~ make this as my last will and testament, reserving all my future and moneys, First: I desire, after my death, that all my just debts to and from all persons be paid, Second: I direct that Mary Chubb who has lived with me, and who has been so kind to me, shall have a good bed with necessary, also a good rocking chair, and twenty five Dollars in money.
 Third: I hereby give to my grand son, Willie, Sandy Thomas the painting of late husband Thomas Stearns.
 Fourth: I desire that all the remainder of my effects, whether of real, personal, or mixed estate be equally divided between my two sons, Oscar and Thomas J.
 I further direct that that portion of my estate devised to my son, Thomas J. shall not be subject to his debts of any kind whatever.
 I further direct that one half of the estate devised to my son Thomas J. shall be held in trust for the use and benefit of his children.
 I hereby nominate and ask the court to appoint as executor of this will my son Oscar Stearns who is empowered to make any and all transfers necessary to the settlement of the estate.
 Witness my signature in the presence of these witnesses,
 This July 9th 1842,
 Lucretia Stearns

At Beaver Dam on July 9th 1842, the aforesaid named Lucretia Stearns, signed and sealed the above instrument of writing as her last will and testament and true in her presence, and at her request and in the presence of such other lawful persons as she named as witnesses, R. A. Becker,

Ohio County Court }
September 5th 1892 }

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Lemuel Stevens deceased was this day produced to the court and in the testimony of S. Shelby Taylor and John Martin two of the attesting witnesses thereto was declared to be the last will and testament of said Stevens. Whereupon the said will was ordered to probate and record. Thereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded in my said Office.

Given under my hand this the 4th day of September 1892.
Ramsdell Brookland

Ranunculus acris L.
By L. L. Lacey & Co.

I Shelby A Jackson of Rockport, Ohio County Kentucky being of sound mind and memory and understanding, do make my last will and testament in the manner following:
First: I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife Elizabeth all of my property real, personal and mixed of what nature and kind so ever and ~~to remain~~ ^{to remain} the same shall be at the time of my death, except what I hereafter otherwise dispose of.
Second: I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter
A Elizabeth Keel the half of land by me in Muhlenburg County Kentucky near the ~~town~~ ^{town} of Bellton are the waters of Roubiduck, known as the ~~old farm~~ ^{Bellevue} ~~place~~, and in addition to this I also give to this daughter my late Hatch and Churn,
Third: I hereby direct that my wife Elizabeth shall purchase a house and lot not to exceed $300.00. The same to be paid to the wife and children of my son A. C.
Jackson.
Fourth: I hereby appoint my wife Elizabeth executrix of this my last will and testament.
In witness whereof I Shelby A. Jackson, the testator have to this my last will and testament set my hand and seal this the twenty third day of August A.D.
1842.
S. A. Jackson

Signed, Sealed, published and clothed by the above named Subby A. Jackson and for his last will and testament in the presence of us who hereunto subscribed our names at his request as witnesses there in the presence of the said testator and of each other,
W. B. James,
L. G. Haden,

Phileas T. Hunt }
Capt. Tenn. 1892 }
The foregoing instrument of writing purporting

See the last will and testament of Shelby A. Jackson, deceased was this day produced to the court and the testimony of H. B. James and L. G. Hinkle the attesting witnesses thereto was declared by the court to be the last will and testament of the said Shelby A. Jackson. Whereupon the said will was ordered to probate and record, thereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded in my said office.
Given under my hand this 3rd day of October 1892,
Ransom Stalbrock Clerk
By L. H. Lacey D.C.

I, Thomas Southard of the County of Ohio and State of Kentucky, being sound of mind and memory do make and publish this as my last will and testament.
First: I will and bequeath to my son Melvin W. Southard my black mule and the farm on which I now reside and I direct my Executor to make him a deed of General Warranty to said farm with the proviso that my wife Elizabeth shall have a home and support on said farm during her life if she outlive me.
Second: I direct, that my just debts all be paid.
Third: I will to my remaining children, viz: Amelia Minton, Eliza Morris, Nancy Goff, Lucretia C. Gurnett and Fannie Shandus, the sum of one dollar each to be paid them by my Executor out of the proceeds of any personal property that I may dispose of and if there is any personal property remaining that it be equally divided between all my children.
Fourth: I appoint my son-in-law W. P. Goff Executor of this my last will,
In testimony whereof I have this day February 11-1888, set by my hand and seal.

Test: W. P. Goff. Thomas Southard his mark

Witnesses: This 11-February 1888-

J. K. Smith.
W. P. Goff.

Ohio County Court
November Term 1892

Be fore my Instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Thomas Southard deceased was this day produced to the court and the testimony of J. K. Smith one of the attesting witnesses thereto was declared by the court to be the last will and testament of the said Thomas Southard, Whereupon the said will was ordered to probate and record. Thereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded in my said office.

Given under my hand this 7th day of November 1892.

Ransom Stalbrock Clerk
By L. H. Lacey D.C.

Delivered to Elizabeth D. Patton of Ohio County and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say:
1st I desire that my just debts, if I owe any, and funeral expenses be paid.
2nd I give to my daughter Jane E. Taylor and grand son Henry Luke Taylor one dollar each.
3rd I give to my son Robert L. Patton the residue of my estate both real and personal, consisting of 47 1/2 acres of land more or less, the same I now live on and same have had goats. I do this as full remuneration for his care and kindness to me since he has been old enough to do so and the promise of ever having the balance of my life as I have no other else that I can depend upon, and lastly I appoint my son R. L. Patton as Executor of this my last will and testament.
In witness whereof I have hereunto had my name assigned, this 18th day of March 1887.

Elizabeth D. Patton her mark
Signed, published and declared as the last will and testament of the above named Elizabeth D. Patton in the presence of us,
J. K. Smith.
W. P. Goff.

Ohio County Court }
June 1st Term 1893 }
Be fore my Instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Elizabeth D. Patton deceased was this day produced in open court and the testimony of W. P. Goff one of the attesting witnesses thereto was declared to be the said Elizabeth D. Patton's last will and testament, whereupon the same was ordered to probate and record, thereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded.
Given under my hand this 6th day of June 1893
Ransom Stalbrock Clerk By L. H. Lacey D.C.