

to all his official act as such, in all courts of record and elsewhere.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said County Court at my office in Lincoln this 15th day of July A.D. 1890.

C. M. Knapp
Clerk

State of Kentucky 3rd set County of Ohio J. D. Thomas J. Smith Clerk of this County Court for the County and State aforesaid do hereby certify that the foregoing Last Will and Testament of Thomas A. Bratcher deceased, was, at the August term 1890 of the Ohio County Court, duly filed in open court and after the court being sufficiently advised, orders that the same be admitted to record as a matter of real and personal estate, Witness my hand this 6th day August 1890.

Thomas J. Smith Clerk

March the 11th 1888, Be it known to all men that I Thomas Avery Bratcher of the County of Ohio and state of Kentucky, being sound in mind and fully competent and capable to transact business intelligently and in view of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do make this my last will and testament, viz: I will and bequeath to my dear wife Margaret A. Bratcher all of my real and personal estate to have and to hold for her own use and benefit during her life. After the demise of my wife Margaret A. Bratcher I will to my three sons Harvey C, Joseph, James H. Bratcher the farm on which I now reside on the home farm and to my three sons Leona M. Robert A. & Charles H. Bratcher my other farm known as the Blain Matthews farm as the division of the two farms I will that they begin in the original line at the N. E. corner of my home farm, thence one tract to Westford and Wordenburg roads. I will to my two unmarried daughters Annetta M. and Margaret E. Bratcher an equal amount for each that my three married daughters Laura A. Carby, Luella Baker, and Josephine Bratcher, received as marriage portions. I also will that at the oath of my wife that my six sons Harvey C. Joseph James H. Leona M. Robert A. and Charles H. Bratcher pay to my five daughters Laura A. Carby, Luella Baker, Josephine Bratcher, Margaret Emma Bratcher and Annetta M. Bratcher the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars to be equally divided between my five daughters. I also will and appoint my wife, Margaret A. Bratcher sole executrix of this my last will and testament without any bond and security and I hereby give the court to accept her as such in my testimony whereof witness my hand this day and date above written

Thomas A. Bratcher

Attest: C. M. Knapp,
B. P. Withers.

Ohio County Court. 3rd set.
September term 1890

The foregoing last will of Thomas A. Bratcher deceased was at this term of court filed and upon the testimony of C. M. Knapp an attesting witness thereto, duly proven and ordered to be recorded which is now done accordingly

Rowan Kullback Clerk

To all whom it may concern, I W. L. Smith in view of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of my approaching death being in my right mind after due consideration do this day will and bequeath to each of my brothers and sisters one dollar for the love and affection I have for them, the remainder of my estate to my wife Etta Smith

Given under my hand this 31st day of May 1890.
W. L. Smith

Attest: S. J. Huff & Jos. Cameron.

Ohio County Court. 3rd set.

September term 1890 The foregoing last will and testament of W. L. Smith deceased was at this term of court filed and upon the testimony of S. J. Huff & Joseph Cameron the attesting witnesses thereto was duly proven and ordered to be duly recorded which is now done accordingly

Rowan Kullback Clerk

Hard Ford, Kentucky, August, 15th 1870.
I John W. Klein of 20th and married citizen of Hard Ford, County of Ohio, and State of Kentucky make this day my last will and testament: I leave to my wife all my real estate and personal property which shall be her own, after my death, my wife Lucy A. Klein shall qualify executor without bond and have power to buy or sell any thing left her as she thinks best.

Witness
John W. Klein
C. H. Massie
G. W. Bringer

The Store is a partnership between brother George Klein and myself, The tools and fixtures shall be moved by invoice book of 1867 and goods at the rate of the time, I am in debt for part of the store to brother George Klein which he holds my notes for, shall be paid as far as the firms notes and accounts are collected and the balance he paid over to my wife Lucy A. Klein and hope this will is carried out.

John W. Klein, 15th August, 1870
Witness: C. H. Massie, and G. W. Bringer

Ohio County Court 3rd Dist.
October Term 1870

The foregoing last will of John W. Klein deceased was at this term of Court filed and upon testimony of C. H. Massie and G. W. Bringer the testimony submitted therein duly proven and ordered to be recorded which is now done accordingly.

Rawson Holbrook Clerk

I, Lewis D. Igglehaut, of Ohio County and State of Kentucky being old and infirm but of sound mind, and taking into consideration the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death and desiring it to be my duty and divine desire to dispose of the property that God in His Providence has been pleased to bless me with. I will and bequeath the same in manner following, viz: My soul into the hand of God who gave it. Second I commit my body to the earth to be buried in decent and a Christian like manner in hope of a happy resurrection
Through the merits of The Blessed Redeemer, The Lord

Jesus Christ. I will to my daughter Elizabeth Chuck five dollars; Second to my son James D. Igglehaut five dollars; Third, to the wife of my daughter Sallie W. Puddew five dollars; Fourth, to my son Sallie Igglehaut five dollars; Fifth, to my daughter Sallie Whillins five dollars; In this I will to my son and Igglehaut the piece of land on which he now lives, beginning at a stake John Igglehaut's old corner, then a line to the Ticks, or line, then South 80 rods with Frederick's line to a stake, then West about 100 rods to a stone, then North to the beginning, the said L. D. Igglehaut is to pay each half of the above legacies, I will to my son John W. Igglehaut the piece on which we now live, one half acre is reserved for Grange Ford, also the stock and farming tools, provided he takes care of land supports me and my wife, his mother in a decent and becoming manner furnishing food and clothing and medical aid when necessary and funeral expenses, also to pay one half of the above legacies, I appoint my son J. W. Igglehaut my executor of this my will whom I have set my hand and seal, this the 9th November 1870.

Lewis D. Igglehaut
J. W. Igglehaut

Ohio County Court 3rd Dist.
October Term 1870

The foregoing last will of Lewis D. Igglehaut deceased, was at this term of Court filed and upon the testimony of J. W. Igglehaut and J. H. Lillie the attesting witnesses therein duly proven and ordered to be recorded which is now done accordingly.

Rawson Holbrook Clerk