

In the name of God, Amen. I, Jas. P. Ambrose of Ohio County and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life; do therefore make, ordain, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament: that is to say, First, After all my lawful debts are paid and discharged, the residue of my estate of all descriptions real personal and mixed I give and bequeath to my beloved wife for the use and benefit of her and my two daughters. Second, My wife to have the power and privilege of selling and conveying any and all of my property both real and personal as she in her judgment may think best, and if my wife should marry again I then desire my estate to be divided as the law directs. Third, I hereby appoint my beloved wife Charlotte Ambrose my executrix to carry out this my last will and testament, and it is further my will that no bond be required of her by the court. Signed sealed and witnessed, this 20th day of January 1886.

J. P. Ambrose.

Signed in presence of

P. D. Duke

R. N. Duke

State of Kentucky }
County Court of Ohio Co. }
March Term 1886 } At

The foregoing instrument of writing was at this term of court produced in open court and was duly proved by the oaths of the subscribing witnesses thereto P. D. Duke and R. N. Duke to be the genuine last will and testament of J. P. Ambrose deceased, and was thereupon ordered to be as it now is duly admitted to record.

Att: P. J. Smith Clerk.

I, William C. McDaniel, being now sick and in bed and conscious of the fact that my time on earth may be near an end, though I am not of sound mind, for which I thank God, make this my last will and testament to wit:

1. I give and bequeath to my daughter Cassa M. Harrison wife of Joseph P. Harrison a note which I hold against her for Three Hundred Dollars which note bears date of November 1st 1876 bearing no interest, and the sum of Seven Hundred Dollars in addition to said note.

2. I give and bequeath to my son John B. a note which I hold against, for Five Hundred Dollars bearing date of May the 1st 1874 bearing no interest, and in addition to said note the sum of Five Hundred Dollars.

3d. I give and bequeath to my son Joseph B. a note which I hold against him for Five Hundred Dollars bearing date Nov. 1st 1884 bearing no interest, and in addition to said note the sum of Five Hundred Dollars.

4th. I give and bequeath to my son Charles M. a note which I hold against him for the sum of Five Hundred Dollars bearing date March 1st 1883, and in addition to said note the sum of Five Hundred Dollars.

5. I give and bequeath to my wife Emily McDaniel and my four minor children to wit: James B. William C. Robert C. and Sarah Catharine, all of the remainder of my estate personal and real, to be equally divided when necessary between my wife and said four minor children, that is to say, after the payment of debts and necessary expenses.

6th. I appoint James Waininger of Grayson County my executor, and request that he be allowed twelve months after this will goes to probate to pay said legacies.

I further make this proviso, that in case of accidents by fire or theft or any other providential or unavoidable accidents to property, notes or money before said estate be settled, that the loss be equally divided by all of my heirs. December 14th 1885.

Att: J. D. Miller
J. R. Brown
W. C. Daniel

W. C. McDaniel.

Ohio County Court }
March Term 1886 } set

In open court at this term of court the foregoing instrument of writing was produced, and was duly proved by the oaths of the subscribing witnesses thereto J. D. Miller, J. R. Bruner and R. W. Daniel to be the genuine last will and testament of M. C. McDaniel deceased, and was thereupon ordered to be as it now is duly admitted to record.

Att: P. C. Smith Clerk.

In the name of God, Amen. I, Wm. M. Miller of the County of Ohio, being sick and weak in body but of sound mind and disposing memory, for which I thank God, and calling to mind the uncertainty of human life and being desirous to dispose of all worldly estate as it hath pleased God to bless me with, I give and bequeath the same in manner as follows:

I give to my wife Mary Miller my entire homestead including the wood land north of the plantation, the same to be hers her lifetime. At her death W. M. Miller is to have all the land starting at Pat. zy Graham's corner, then a straight line to an ash tree standing right immediately on the right hand side of the road and creek, thence a straight line to the mouth of the branch that runs down to John Arnold's line on the creek. I also give my wife the rent of the store house for the benefit of her and my daughter Mary. Then after all just claims are paid I want the remainder to be divided equally between John D. Miller, David R. Miller, Robert S. Miller, Martha Cole, W. P. Miller, Mary B. Miller, Dorcas Ezell, Juda B. Thomas, James M. Miller, also J. W. Thomas and Alouzo Thomas are to have one-half share each, except D. R. Miller whom I gave a deed to sixty acres of land which shall be deducted therefrom One hundred and eighty dollars out of his part of the estate, also One hundred and thirty dollars for land I deeded to R. A. Miller, also One hundred and thirty dollars are to be deducted from James M. Miller for land I deeded to him. After paying all my just debts I give my son Joseph's heir Maggie Mattingly One dollar, also to my son William's son William One dollar. I do hereby appoint my son John D. Miller and R. A. Miller executors to this my last will and testament without security. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affix my seal, this the 10th day of March 1886.

William M. Miller

Att: Walker Myrtle
Wm. M. Autry

Ohio County Court }
May Term 1886. } set

The foregoing instrument of writing was at this term of court produced in open court by John D. Miller and R. A. Miller, and was duly proved by the testimony of Walker Myrtle and Wm. M. Autry, subscribing witnesses thereto, to be the genuine last will and testament of William M. Miller deceased, and was thereupon ordered to be as it is now duly admitted to record.

Att: P. J. Smith Clerk

In the name of God, Amen. I, B. Wayne Griffin of Hartford Kentucky do hereby make this to be my last will and testament. I give all my property real and personal to my wife Maria Jane Griffin to be held and owned by her absolutely as her own and in fee simple title, except as follows: I bequeath to my nephew Wayne Griffin my gold watch, and I bequeath to my nephew Wayne Griffin son of P. D. Griffin my mare Wolly. I also give him the undivided one-half interest in the store house building in which is now kept the drug store of B. Wayne Griffin and Brother, subject however to the life-estate of my said wife to whom I give a life-estate in said building and lot. I hereby make and constitute my wife to be sole executrix of this my will. I hereby authorize her to make deeds of conveyance of any real estate which I have sold or am to convey, and I