

Ohio County Court
February Term 1892.

I, Rawmond Holbrook, Clerk of the Ohio County Court, do certify that the foregoing last will and testament of H. C. Morgan deceased was at the time of said filing in open Court and upon the testimony of James H. Bennett and William Smith the attesting witnesses thereto was ordered to probate and record which is now done accordingly together with this certificate in my said office.

Rawmond Holbrook Clerk
By A. P. Loney D.C.

Last Will & Testament of Charles Hipsley.

Item 1st - I will and desire after my death all my just debts paid.

Item 2nd - I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Elvira Hipsley one third of my estate during her natural life time.

Item 3rd - As I have advanced to my daughter Ruth Turner ($947.25) million and forty seven dollars and ²⁵/₁₀₀

Item 4th - I will and bequeath to my daughter Emma May ($947.25) nine hundred and forty seven dollars and ²⁵/₁₀₀

Item 5th - I will and bequeath to my daughter Prossy Riley ($947.25) nine hundred and forty seven dollars and ²⁵/₁₀₀

Item 6th - After my death I will and desire my lands sold by my executor without an order of court - He shall have the right to convey and deed the same.

Item 7th - This makes my daughters all equal.

Item 8th - I will and desire the remainder of my estate to be equally divided between my three daughters.

Item 9th - I desire after the death of my wife if there be any thing left of her third of my estate it be divided equally between my three daughters.

This the 19th day of January 1885, Charles Hipsley
Attest: J. C. Cooper
L. D. Cooper

Codicil: to the above will.
I Charles Hipsley will that my land shall not be sold during my beloved wife Elvira Hipsley's life time. After that date

I will my land sold as directed in the will.
Charles Hipsley

Attest:

J. C. Cooper
W. J. Riley.

Ohio County Court
February Term 1892.

I, Rawmond Holbrook, Clerk of the Ohio County Court, do certify that the foregoing last will and testament of Charles Hipsley deceased was at this time of Court filed in open Court and upon the testimony of J. C. Cooper and W. J. Riley one of the attesting witnesses to the will and H. J. Riley one of the attesting witnesses to the codicil it was proven to be said Charles Hipsley's last will and testament together with the codicile thereto was ordered to probate and record which is now done accordingly together with this certificate in my said office.

Rawmond Holbrook Clerk
By A. P. Loney D.C.

I William H. McHenry being sound in mind and memory, do hereby create and constitute this instrument of writing as my last will & testament. I desire to probate this said will in the County, State of Kentucky, and as to so much as is as much as I own real estate in said County & State - I do not own the same which I have sold some years since to my brother John H. McHenry for convenience in assessing, paying taxes on, and renting and collecting. said John H. McHenry is to retain such land for himself and heirs in full fee simple: and so and Henry D. McHenry of Hartford, Ohio County do act with full power as executors of this will, no bond is required of either executor. I give for $2000. - without interest which is to be returned to him and his heirs for same is over & is preferred against him or his heirs.

My property elsewhere held, and consisting of bonds, bank and railroad stock &c.
My said Executors are required to apportion among my brothers and sisters as follows:
To Estell McHenry of St. Louis Missouri, Fifteen thousand dollars in bonds and fifty shares of stock in the Chesapeake, Ohio & South Western Railroad.

To Mrs. Emily Hale of Owensboro Kentucky, Eighteen thousand dollars in bonds & bank stock and twenty eight shares of stock in the Kentucky and Atlantic Railroad. The same to be her own and separate estate, & control and disposal of by will as she may deem proper. This provision must not be understood to imply any distrust or disrespect of that excellent and honorable gentleman Dr. Josiah Hale, her husband to Mrs. Mary Craig of Danvers, County Kentucky, Twenty thousand dollars in bank stocks and bonds, which my Executors are to keep in hand and manage as trustees for her and her children and shall see that her children alone shall succeed her as heirs to the same.
As my great-grandson they allow her husband and Robert Craig ever to receive one cent or have right to interest or dividends of said bonds and bank stocks. They are required to be extremely vigilant that said Craig shall not either at present or in future, receive any part of same. As soon as Mrs. Craig died before her husband, her portion herein allotted must go. The children in form so contained that Craig may not become heir to one of the children who may die in minor years.

To Leucius D. McHenry of Louisville, Kentucky,
The remainders of my stock in the Chesapeake Ohio and South Western Railroad, and five thousand dollars long term six per cent bonds, and this instance, likewise, are my Executors to act as trustees, keep said bonds in hand & pay him the semi-annual interest on same during his life time. At his decease such bonds are to go in equal division to my other brothers and sisters or their heirs.
The remainder of my property is to be equally divided between John H. and Henry D. McHenry.

my above named Executors and Trustees.
I confidently rely upon the high honor and integrity I thank all my life known both of thought & person, to carry out the several provisions herein contained in a manner just and equitable, & their co-heirs named in this will.
Written with my own hand and signed in presence of Henry McHenry and Leucius D. McHenry, on this 26th day of January Anno Domini 1887.
At the town of Owensboro in the State of Kentucky,
William H. McHenry.

Attest.

Henry McHenry.

Leucius D. McHenry.

Codicil to the above will

Owensboro Kentucky Aug. 6th 1891.

Henry D. McHenry, named in my will as one of my Executors, having died on the 17th of December 1890, I hereby designate and appoint John D. McHenry to succeed him as Executor of the said will, and with all the powers bestowed upon my other Executors.

This codicil is written with my own hand, on the day and year above aforesaid.
William H. McHenry.

Witness:

John William McHenry having heretofore made my last will in which I directed that the whole of my estate pass to my brothers & sisters, & their representatives except Dr. McHenry, my nephew, which will I hereby ratify excepting in this the following modification.
It is now my will that my said nephew Dr. McHenry shall have of my estate, Five thousand dollars ($5000) and my Executors John H. & John D. McHenry are hereby requested & directed to pay my said nephew

He said $5000. in full of all claim he shall have or make against the same.
W^m H. McHenry.

Witness
Equity Hall.
Isabelle H. McHenry.
April 6th - 1892.

This County Court

May Term 1892: sct

I, Berran Holbrook, Clerk of the Ohio County Court do certify; that the foregoing last will & two codicils, thereto of W^m H. Mc Henry deceased was this day the same being a regular term day, produced in open court & read & examined by the court & proved by the evidence of Lewis H. Cox, Mary E. Taylor Equity Hall, Isabelle H. McHenry & J. C. Taylor, according to the requirements of Law in such cases is the last will & testament of said Testator whereupon the said will & two codicils were ordered to record & adjudged to be the will of said Testator all of which together with this certificate is hereby certified & of record.

Witness my hands as clerk this 2^d day of May 1892

Berran Holbrook, Clerk.

I, Lafayette Sublett of Ohio County, Kentucky by profession a Farmer, knowing the certainty of death and the uncertainty of life being in delicate health and sound of mind and disposing memory, do make, publish, sign, and declare this my last will and testament as follows: First, I will that all my just debts be paid, Also my personal or personal paid by my hereinafter mentioned Executor.

Second, I will, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Margaret J. Sublett all the household and personal property of all kinds that I may be possessed at my death to dispose of and do as she pleases with of di-posing of the above named debts and funeral expenses.
Third, I will devise and bequeath to my said wife all the real estate that I may own at my death to be hers as long as she may live to receive and enjoy the use and occupancy or rents of same during her life.
Fourthly, It is my will that my said wife remain, upon the land with Mrs. C. Richardson as tenant or part, not partly leased, I want if in the event that Mrs. Richardson remains with my said wife mother of and assisting her until her death then I will, devise and bequeath that the said Mrs. Richardson have full control and ownership of the land as above named at said time of the death of my said wife.

Fifth, I hereby name and appoint my wife Margaret J. Sublett & each of them my last will to be my executor of Kentucky without seal or bond.

Witness my hand, signed, sealed & this 8th day of November, 1891, in the presence of Edward Hamilton and Albert May, and J. C. Taylor.

Lafayette Sublett

And at and by request of said Lafayette Sublett we Edward Hamilton, Albert May and J. C. Taylor being called on by said Testator in his presence and in the presence of each other do hereby say in so stating witness the above and foregoing instrument as the last will and testament of Lafayette Sublett this 8th day of November, 1891.

Edward Hamilton

Albert May

J. C. Taylor

Ohio County Court

May Term, 1892 sct

I, Berran Holbrook, Clerk of the Ohio County Court