

I, James Jarnagin, do make and publish this as my last will and testament, here by revoking and making void all others by me at any time made. First: I direct that my funeral expenses and all my just debts be paid as soon as of my death as possible out of my monies that I may be possessed of, or may first come into the hands of my Executor. Secondly: I give and bequeath to my daughter, Mary A Baird, in addition to what she has already given her viz: a tract of land and which she now owns containing twelve and one half acres: valued at one hundred and twenty five dollars - One dollar in money is hereby directed to be given her as her share of my estate, and also one note and to Mr Bird's principal and interest on which amounts to thirty dollars and 53 cents up to first of July last: and also to carry an account I have against S. H. Bird amounting to thirty eight dollars and 70 cents: the whole amount aggregating now one hundred and ninety four dollars and 23 cents. Thirdly: I direct that the several notes which I hold on J. H. M. Jarnagin my son amounting to near six hundred and forty two dollars be delivered to my said son John M. Jarnagin, and also one dollar in money. Fourthly: I direct that there be no further interest collected on the several notes which I hold on each of my sons as follows: After the first day of July 1886, on A. Jarnagin amounting at that date to one hundred and seventy seven dollars and 88 cents, on J. M. Jarnagin one hundred and eighty nine dollars and 81 cents and James A. Jarnagin three hundred and fifty five dollars and 48 cents. Fifthly: I direct that after my decease, that all of my property, both real and personal, except what is hereinafter mentioned, that is to say such articles and money as may be necessary for the use and benefit of my wife if she survives me during her life time. Sixthly: I direct that the net proceeds of sale of my property be equally divided between my following named sons, A. Jarnagin, J. M. Jarnagin and James A. Jarnagin and my daughter E. M. Preston requiring them to pay their indebtedness to my estate. I hereby nominate and appoint S. P. Steuk my Executor. In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name, this 23rd day of April 1887.
James Jarnagin
W. C. Daniel and S. P. Steuk witnesses

Ohio County Court
January Term 1892.

I, Rawans Holbrook Clerk of the Ohio County Court, do certify that the foregoing last will and testament of James Jarnagin deceased was at this time of court filed in open court and upon the testimony of W. C. Daniel and S. P. Steuk the attesting witnesses thereto was ordered to be read and recorded which is now done accordingly by me with this certificate in my said office.

Rawans Holbrook Clerk
By L. H. Lacey D. C.

I, William C. Morgan of the County of Ohio and State of Kentucky, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills I may have made. I give and devise to my beloved wife Isabel M. Morgan my home, tract of land consisting of one hundred and thirty acres together with all my personal property (if my just debts are paid to hold and use during her natural life or so long as she remains my widow. In case she remarries then after death her legal dower, the remaining part of the above property is to be equally divided between my two children, Ashford M. Morgan and Edith M. Morgan on conditions that each (C. W. M. and Edith M. Morgan) pay to Lucy (Morgan) Cottrell one hundred dollars or if my widow does not remarry the above named division is to take place at the death of my widow. I give and bequeath to my daughter S. J. Morgan Early one tract of land containing one hundred and twenty (120) acres lying in the County of Ohio and on the waters of Burnetts Creek, I give the above tract to the said S. J. Morgan Early and her bodily heirs and with the condition that she pay to Lucy (Morgan) Cottrell ($100) one hundred dollars. I do hereby constitute and appoint my son C. W. Morgan Executor of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this November 28th 1891.
Signed and acknowledged W. C. Morgan by W. C. Morgan in and presence James H. Bennett, Wm Smith

Ohio County Court
February Term 1892,

I, Rawson Dalbrook Clerk of the Ohio County Court, do certify that the foregoing last will and Testament of Chas Hipsley deceased was at the time of said filing in open Court and upon the testimony of James H Bennett and William Smith the attesting witnesses thereto was ordered to probate and record which is now done accordingly together with this certificate in my said office.

Rawson Dalbrook Clerk
By A. P. Lacey D.C.

Last Will & Testament of Charles Hipsley.

Item 1st - I will and devise after my death all my just debts paid,

Item 2nd - I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Elvira Hipsley and third of my estate during her natural life time,

Item 3rd - As I have advanced to my daughter Ruth Turner ($947.25) which I recd and forty seven dollars
and 25^{cts}

Item 4th - I will and bequeath to my daughter Lavinia May ($947.25) nine hundred and forty seven dollars
and 25^{cts}

Item 5th - I will and bequeath to my daughter Procy Piley ($947.25) nine hundred and forty seven dollars
and 25^{cts}

Item 6th - After my death I will and devise my lands sold by my executor without an order of court - He shall have the right to convey and deed the same

Item 7th - This makes my daughters all equal.

Item 8th - I will and devise the remainder of my estate to be equally divided between my three daughters.

Item 9th - I desire after the death of my wife if there be any thing left of her third of my estate it be divided equally between my three daughters
This the 19th day of January 1885, Charles Hipsley

Attest: J. C. Cooper Codicil: to the above will.

I Charles Hipsley will that my land shall not be sold during my beloved wife's Elvira Hipsley's life time. After that date

I will my land sold as directed in the will.
Charles Hipsley

Attest:
J. C. Cooper
W. J. Riley.

Ohio County Court
February Term 1892,

I, Rawson Dalbrook Clerk of the Ohio
County Court, do certify that the foregoing last will and testament of Charles Hipsley deceased was at this time of Court filed in open Court and upon the testimony of J. C. Cooper one of the attesting witnesses to the will and W. J. Riley one of the attesting witnesses to the codicil it was proven to be said Charles Hipsley's last will and testament together with the codicil thereto was ordered to probate and record which is now done accordingly together with this certificate in my said office.

Rawson Dalbrook Clerk
By A. P. Lacey D.C.

I William H. McHenry being sound in mind and memory, do hereby create and constitute this instrument of writing as my last will & testament. I desire it to probate in said County, State of Kentucky, and as to so much as much as I own real estate in said County & State I will and give the same which I have owned and held since I my brother John H. McHenry for convenience in managing, paying taxes on, and renting and collecting, said John H. McHenry is to retain such land, for himself and heirs in full fee simple; and so and Henry D.
McHenry of Hartford, this County do act with full power as executors of this will, no bond is to be required of either executor.
I give for $2000. - without interest which I hold against said Henry D. McHenry is to be returned to him and his heirs for same