I, Thos & Moore Clerk of the County Court for the County aforesaid, do certify that the foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Coleman Bandy, died was produced in Court on the 11th day of June above said and passed by the Court as the last will and testament of the said Coleman Bandy, and ordered to be recorded, which is done, given under my hand this 8th day of June 1854. I C Moore Clerk

In the name of God Amen I Richard Bellw of the County of Pendleton and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and disposing memory for which I thank God and taking into consideration the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death and being desirous to dispose of my worldly estate as it has pleased God to bless me with I will and bequeath the same in the manner following. To wit

First it is my will and desire that my personal estate ~~be paid~~ and all my just debts shall be first paid out of any money that may be or funds out of my personal property.

Secondly I will and bequeath my beloved wife Elizabeth Bellw the Farm and premises whereon I now reside for the use and benefit of her during her natural life and for the use of the Family that is now at home and for a maintenance for them for taken care of their mother, namely Elizabeth, Luanda & William & Bellw my children.

Further I will and bequeath to my wife and three children aforesaid all of my personal property together with all the money that my wife or her heirs or obtained from this living or any other source.

Thirdly if my wife should ~~die~~ after my death then in that case I am willing that her husband should work on on my home Farm as home a support out of the ~~product~~ thereof. but to have no control of my business or estate whatever.

Fourthly it is my will and desire that my two children namely Elizabeth Bellw and William B Bellw after the death of their mother shall have the home farm I will and bequeath to them and their bodily heirs said farm containing two hundred acres more or less to be equally divided between them my said son W B Bellw is not to have the possession of his moiety of land until he arrives at the age of twenty and years in and his mother should die previous to that time.

I wish it further understood that should my wife die before my son is of lawful age that my said daughter Elizabeth Bellw is to have the use and benefit of all the home farm & acres of land until my son is of lawful age.

So my will further that should my daughter Elizabeth Bellw or son W B Bellw die without any lawful heirs at their deaths then in that case it is my will and desire that the whole Farm of two hundred acres should ~~revert~~ to the other.

Fifthly I will and bequeath to my daughter Luanda Bellw one hundred acres of land being of the east part of largey creek in Pendleton County Kentucky to her and her bodily heirs & should my daughter Luanda die without lawful heirs or other heirs then in that case I will and desire that that of my other children who have heirs is to inherit the same for the use and benefit of my grand children equally.

I wish it further understood that I do not want or allow either of my children to sell any
