I James Price of Shelby County and state of Kentucky being in a low situation and Truly sensible that Man is born to Die but have reason to be thankful to God altho my Bodily Afflictions Yet my Memory is still no way impaired but think it necessary to leave this my last Will & Testament & so Commit my Body to the Earth my soul to God that gave it Item I do bequeath to my Daughter Mary who she is Married on off my mans Cotts and a Bed and Furniture the years Cotts American now that is with Coal. Item, I do Bequeath to my Daughter Mary Catts - Barab to have According to my eldest Daughter Mary when she is Married, Item I do leave Bequeath to my beloved Wife Catharine, the whole of living such as Land, Horse, Cows, Hops, and all other living Creatures Household Furniture and all other property to raise my Children and School them as long as she keeps a widow and if continuing a life she dies then the Land is to be equally Divided among my Sons and the rest off my Property. Item after my Decease I make Choise of my Brother John Edward to be my Executor to pay my Catts bills and Also to see that my Children and living is done by Agreeable to this my last Will and Testament. At Witness my hand and seal the
