In the name of God. Amen I Thomas McKel of the County State of Virginia being weak of body but of sound memory before he god on this 27th day of May 1790 make and publish this my last will and Testament in manner following viz first I give and bequeath to my Son David the tract of Land on which I now live to be by him enjoyed if he lives to the age of twenty one, if he die before he be of age, the land to be divided equally among my surviving Daughters, also I give unto my beloved wife Elizabeth the negro wench named Becky to be disposed of as she shall see fit, also all the moveable property (except one house to be given to my Son John when he comes for it) which property she is to have at her disposal for the maintainance of the children as she shall remain unmarried, but if she shall marry, the whole property except the negro and cow above mentioned shall be sold, and she shall have the third of all, and the remainder shall be equally divided among my Daughters, my wife is to have the use of the Land for the support of the family until my son David be 21 age, and if she remain single she is to have her own maintenance off it during her life, and I do appoint the she my said wife together with my brother Jonathan shall be Executors of this my last will and Testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand Seal this 27th day of May 1790.
