315 In the name of god amen I James Dickey yeoman of Woodford County and state of Kentucky sensible of the uncertainty of life and being in perfect health and the full exercise of my rational Powers I do appoint and constitute this my last will and testament in the manner and form following viz, 1 I do commit my body to the dust and my soul to almighty God who gave it. 2. after my funeral and other lawful debts are discharged it is my will. 3 That my sons Michael James and John Dickey shall have and hold such part of stock as are now named to them viz horses cows sheep & hogs in full to their heirs or assigns forever It is my will that Michael Dickey his heirs or assigns shall have and hold two hundred acres of land forever including his now improvements on the west of my present improvements. 5 Then it is my will that John Dickey my son his heirs or assigns shall have and hold forever the remainder of my now survey containing two hundred and twenty acres including my improvements. 6 It is my will that my son James Dickey his heirs or assigns forever shall have and hold three hundred acres of land taken out of my survey of fifteen hundred acres lying between main Licking and the North fork of Licking in the County of Mason The balance to be equally divided between my sons
