upon a writ of error to reverse a judgement of the Woodford County Court.

The court being now sufficiently advised of and concerning the premises delivered the following opinion to wit: The principal instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of Thos. Violet deceased has been testified by the subscribing witnesses as duly published according to the form of law by the said violet as his will and testament. But it has been supposed by some that the testator was of mind insane or too imbecile to act efficiently. and some witnesses have proved that he acted at times with whimsical and ridiculous levity. These are accounted for and are rightly attributable to his fits of intemperance in the use of distilled liquors. none have so testified as to induce a belief that he laboured under derangement or fixed imbecility of mind. On the contrary it is well established by the subscribing witnesses that he was at the time of the publication and attestation in his cool and sober senses. It appears clearly that he was a man of retentive memory and of sound disposing mind even to his last moments. he appears long before his death to have fixed and continued his attention against intestacy and to have formed a determination as to the particular disposition of the bulk of his estate. In the framing and execution of this his last will and testament he appears to have acted throughout with a firm collected and efficient mind. he sent for Mr. George Walker a gentleman of the profession of the Law and of known integrity he directed Mr. Walker what dispositions to make. When the instrument was drawn he heard it read distinctly more than once he took advice as to the mode of attestation which he afterwards strictly conformed to and having so done inclosed it to Mr. Walker for safe keeping with a letter requesting to know as an answer whether he had received it. The very act of passing by nearer neighbours with whom he had formerly some bickering and going to those more remote to get their attestation the manner in which he folded it so as to present little else than his name to the subscribing witnesses the surprise he shewed when one for whom he had not sent to attest it entered the room the caution which he used to conceal the particular dispositions he had made all evidence amounting to retentive a healthy recollection and a judgement keenly exercised upon the workings of Human passions and prejudices. In fine there is the most abundant testimony that his mind was sufficiently hale to entitle him to the right of disposing by last will and testament and that he has legally and efficiently exercised it.

Therefore it is considered by the court that the judgement of the county court respecting the probate of the said last will and testament of Thos. Violet deceased be reversed that the said Will and testament be here recorded as fully proved and the original transmitted to the said County Court of Woodford to be there admitted to record as fully proved in this court and thence to proceed as the law directs in like cases that as the councils appear to have been excited at a time when the testator was of competent mind but that the subscribing witnesses were not examined in this Court therefore that the said County Court do hear the testimony of the subscribing witnesses to the several codicils respecting the publication and attestation thereof and thereupon do make such order of and upon the premises as to them shall seem meet and further to act in this behalf according to Law.

Which is ordered to be certified to the said County Court.

Which said last will and testament of Thomas Violet deceased as directed to be here recorded is in the words and figures following to wit, In the name of God amen I Thomas Violet do make and ordain this my last will and testament hereby revoking all wills or appointment heretofore made viz. It is my will and desire that my executors herein after named do first pay all my debts out of my monies that may come into their hands & ^{ndly} I give unto my sons Henson Thomas John Ashford Edward William Augusta & my daughters Elizabeth each six shillings ^{3^{dly}} I give my daughter Nancy South my negroes Peter Andrew and Sally until they the said negroes severally arrive to the age of twenty five years old Peter now aged about eleven years old Andrew nine years old and Sally five years old and when the said negroes Peter Andrew and Sally attain the age of twenty five years old they and their increase to be free and condition nevertheless that should my said daughter Nancy South or her heirs or any other person claiming the said negroes in the right of my daughter sell the said negroes or either of them they the said negroes or negroes shall be free from the date of such sale or should the said negroes or either of them be sent out of the state or should there be an attempt made by my said daughter or any other person claiming them under her the said negroes in like manner shall be entitled to their freedom as they would have been had they remained in the possession of my said daughter and her heirs until the said negroes had severally attained the age twenty five years old and in addition to the negroes a^{bove} mentioned I give my said daughter Nancy a bed and furniture ^{4^{thly}} I give unto my daughter Milly and her heirs the plantation wherein I now live together with my household and kitchen furniture and farming utensils and stock of every kind and also my money whether it be in cash on hand at my death or due by bonds notes or in any other manner whatever on condition that my said daughter Milly do annually give my daughter Valinda ten Dollars a year for twenty years. I also give my said daughter Milly my negroes George aged about twelve old Maria aged about twelve years old and Ellender about three years and a half old until the said negroes severally obtain the age of twenty five years old and also my negroes Belia aged eighteen months Patience now twenty one years old Hetty Hannah and James Hetty now sixteen years old Hannah six years old and James four years old 199 all of my said negroes to serve my said daughter ^{until} they severally attain the age of twenty five years old and then they and their increase they may have at their several times of my said negroes herein mentioned attaining their age of twenty five years old shall also be free. my will is that all after born children of my said negroes shall be at the time their mothers are free whether such child or children is born before or after the several times of service of my said negroes but it is nevertheless my intention and on no other condition whatever shall my said daughter Milly hold the said negroes but under the restrictions for futures and conditions as it is mention in this my last will as to the negroes given to my daughter Nancy Smith ^{7thly} It is my will and I do hereby set free at my death my negroes Sylvia Cairn Jack Susan and binawana.
