JETT V. SMITH

(Telegraph's Georgia News Service)
DAWSON, Sept. 11. — Funeral services for Jett V. Smith, 67, Sasser citizen, were held at the Sasser Methodist church Sunday morning at 10 o'clock (CST). The Rev. J. W.
Tinley of Albany conducted the services, assisted by the Rev. M. F.
Reeves of Smithville. Burial was in Cedar Hill cemetery, Dawson.

Mr. Smith died at his home in Sasser about 6:30 Saturday evening after an illness of about two weeks.
Death was due to pneumonia which developed Saturday morning.

A son of the late John Wesley Smith and Lou Souther Smith, he was born in Oglethorpe July 6, 1872.
He was a descendant of pioneer settlers of Macon county, who came to that section from South Carolina in 1836. With his family, Mr. Smith located near Sasser about 27 years ago, when he became farm superintendent of the Wooten estate, which position he held up until about two years ago, when he moved into Sasser.

He had been a member of the Methodist church since 14 years of age and had been a member of the board of stewards of the Sasser Methodist church for about 20 years.
He was married in December, 1902, to Miss Clara Hogge of Macon county, Ga.

Surviving are his wife and six children, J. W. Smith, Columbus, Ga.; Mrs. Fred Davis, Sasser; Mrs.
Warren Hodge, Perry; Dr. Clarence Smith, Stuttgart, Ark.; Terrell Smith, Sasser; Carl Smith, Oglethorpe; a sister, Mrs. J. L. Pickard, Montezuma; a brother, Gordon Smith, Newport News, Va., and six grandchildren.

The goat is a sensitive creature and most fastidious about its food, in spite of its reputation for eating tin-cans and other rubbish.
