ADAMS, Hopewell. Washington Co., Ga. Divisions, 1829-71, Bk A, p. 64-65. "Georgia, Washington Co. By virtue of an order from the Honorable Court of said county sitting for ordinary purposes on the first day of November instant, to us directing, authorizing and requiring us to make a distribution of the estate of the late Hopewell Adams, decd, among the distributees of said estate, we proceeded on this day to perform that duty. We ascertained there were eleven distributees, to-wit: William D. Jordan, James Adams, Abijah Wiggins, the children of John W. Adams, decd, Arnold L. Adams, Benjamin Adams, Thomas Jordan, the children of Nancy Jordan, decd, Hopewell Adams, Jordan P. Adams, and William Tanner. The shares were numbered 1 to 11 and were assigned to the distributees, except Thomas Jordan, were placed in a hat and the numbers of the lots, except No. 1, were put in another hat and both were shaken. A number was then drawn from one hat and a number from the other, the following is the result: No. 2, Jordan Adams, consisting of negro man Daniel valued at 773.00; No. 3, William D. Jordan, consisting of negro man Kernery, valued at 730.00; No. 4, children of Nancy Jordan, consisting of negro woman Fannee and girl valued at 725.00; No. 5, orphans of John W. Adams, decd, consisting of two negro women, Rachel and Susan valued at 700.00; No. 6, Benjamin Adams, consisting of a negro woman Harriet and her child Green valued at 700.00; No. 7, James Adams, consisting of negro man Alfred and girl Margeann valued at 725.00; No. 8, Abijah Wiggins, consisting of negro man Sampson and girl Jane valued at 725.00; No. 9, William Tanner, consisting of negro woman Sarah and girl Sarah valued at 725.00; No. 10, Alfred L. Adams, consisting of negro man George and girl Mary valued at 750.00; No. 11, Hopewell Adams consisting of girl Betsy and boy Joy valued at 762.00. No. 1 consisting of a negro woman Lucy, one woman Grace and child Lucinda valued at 780.00. These negroes having gone to Thomas Jordan by deed of gift from the decd and he having proposed to take the same at our valuation as his portion of the negroes of said estate and all the parties at interest having consented for him to do so were assigned the same number according to drawn. Negro boy, Nelson valued at 525.00 having been given to Benjamin Adams by decd, and he having claimed the right to take the same at our valuation so much of his distributive share of estate of said decd and the parties at interest having consented that he should do so, the said boy Nelson was included in the division but left in hands of admr to be turned over to sd Benjamin Adams this 25th of Nov. 1847. /s/ Richard Warthen, Eli Cummings, Francis T. ADAMS, William. History of Hampstead County, Arkansas. "William Adams is one of the prosperous planters of Noland Township, and owes his nativity to Washington County, Ga. where he was born on July 17, 1825, a son of Harmon and Fannie (Hodges) Adams. The father was born in North Carolina, in 1800, and reared on a farm in that State. After reaching years of discretion, he chose that occupation as his calling in life, and followed it with marked success until his death. He was married in Washington County, Ga. in 1823, to Miss Fannie Hodges, a native of Georgia, born in 1790, and their marriage was blessed with two children of the subject of this sketch being the elder, and Lizzie. The father was a soldier in the Indian War. He passed from life in 1873, in full communion with the Baptist Church. his wife died in Georgia in 1844. The marriage of our subject occurred in Pike County, Ala. in 1816 to Miss Mary A. Smith, the daughter of Samuel M. and Elizabeth (McClure) Smith, and they became the parents of ten children--five sons and five daughters...."

ANDERSON, Hugh came to Ga. Colony at his own expense, arriving 6/27/1737. He was given lot #178 in Savannah, and by Dec. 7th his son was granted 500 acres. He was first Inspector of the Public Gardens and mulberry plantations, corresponding with Mr. Adam Anderson in England (one of the trustees) reporting on the condition of land, etc. Hugh was from Scotland and was given credit upon the Stores of Savannah. By 1739 Hugh was distressed with the land, high quit rents and local politics. A group of persons called the Scotch Club ran off to Charles Town, S. C. where they declared they would not return until something was done about their malcontents. Here, they published a pamphlet called "A True Historical Narrative of the Colony of Georgia" which eventually was published and sold in London for 18 cents a copy. By 1741 he had returned to Georgia, and was settled on his plantation "The Hermitage". He petitioned the trustees for assistance, having 17 in his family. Issue of Hugh and Elizabeth, his wife: Alexander, Catherine, Moore.
